FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27
Shabbat 200
5:00 - 7:30pm, Community Room- Craig Hall
The community is invited for a Shabbat service and dinner!
Co-sponsored with Hillel, Chabad and USG Diversity Committee
Space is limited, RSVP by Tues, Oct 24 at tinyurl.com/du-shabbot200

MONDAY, OCTOBER 30
Kirk Lecture*: “The Reformation & the Problem of Certainty.”
by Professor Susan Schriener (University of Chicago)
6:30pm- Reception; 7:00pm- Lecture
Reiman Theater, Margery Reed Building
*Annual event sponsored by the Department of Religious Studies

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1
Faith Zones Training
9:30am - 12:30pm, lunch following with Ariel Ennis
1864 Suite, Driscoll Center North
Based upon the Safe Zone model which is used to educate groups about the LGBTQ community on many campuses (including DU’s Q and A Training”), Faith Zone topics include reflecting on personal experiences with faith and spirituality, examining the global and local context for various religious traditions represented at DU, and more.
RSVP at tinyurl.com/du-faithzone

Panel discussion:
“Reformations You MayHaveMissed”
6:30pm, Lindsay Auditorium - Sturm Hall
While the “Reformation” often refers to the “Protestant” reformation of the 16th century, almost every religious tradition undergoes (or needs to undergo) periodic “reformation”. Join us for a conversation about how this process manifests itself in other places!

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2
Ecumenical Worship: Catholic & Protestant Together, All welcome!
Noon - 1:00pm, Evans Chapel
Co-sponsored with Catholic Student Fellowship, DU Cru, and Young Life College @ DU.

Faith n’ Greet
6:00pm, Driscoll Student Center - Room 127
An opportunity to meet (and learn) informally with members of a number of religious traditions.
Co-sponsored with Theta Chi Fraternity.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3
Friday Jummah Prayers with Imam Shafi (Masjid Abu Bakr)
12:30pm, Driscoll Student Center - Governor’s Ballroom
Co-sponsored with DU’s Muslim Student Association

Any updates to the program will be found at tinyurl.com/2017-du-raw

Sponsored by the Office of Religious & Spiritual Life and the Department of Religious Studies