Welcome to the English Language Center (ELC).

The ELC Main Building is located at 1958 South Josephine Street in Denver Colorado and is part of the University of Denver. The ELC is open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The ELC Main Building has three classrooms, a computer lab, a prayer room, faculty and administrative offices, and a student lounge. The ELC also has nine dedicated classrooms and a computer lab in the Centennial Towers building as well as a classroom in the International House. In addition, our Launch university transition courses are taught on the DU main campus.

THE ELC VISION, MISSION, AND VALUES STATEMENTS

Vision
The ELC will be a collaborative program committed to high-quality English language instruction, community engagement, and global citizenry.

Mission
The mission of the English Language Center (ELC) is to support the goals of the University of Denver by preparing English Language Learners with the necessary communicative and cultural competencies to be successful members of DU and other US institutions of Higher Education.

Values
In all that we do, we strive for academic and professional excellence, integrity, mutual respect, and inclusiveness.

ELC STUDENTS
All students studying at the ELC are officially students of the University of Denver. They have all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of other University students. ELC students can use the University library and bookstore, participate in recreation and intramural programs, use services at the DU Health and Counseling Center, use the facilities of the Ritchie Center for Sports and Wellness, and additional resources. ELC students are expected to abide by the University of Denver Honor Code: http://www.du.edu/studentlife/studentconduct/
REGISTRATION AND ENROLLMENT

New students are required to register on the designated Registration Day after their arrival at the ELC. Students planning to return from the previous quarter must complete the registration process on the designated days of the current quarter.

TUITION
Tuition and fees must be paid at the beginning of the quarter at the Bursar's Office in University Hall. If tuition is not paid by the deadline provided by the ELC, the student will not be allowed to continue studying at the ELC. For students who have sponsorship agreements with DU, the sponsors will be charged directly for the tuition fee. Students are responsible for providing updated financial guarantees so that the sponsors can be billed. For all billing and payment questions, see the Bursar’s website: http://www.du.edu/bursar/.

ACTIVITY/LAB FEE
An activity/lab fee ($30) is included with the total amount due at the beginning of each quarter. The money is used for several field trips, lunches/parties, prizes, the lounge, computer paper and ink cartridges and more.

HEALTH INSURANCE & HEALTH FEE
All ELC students are required to pay the University of Denver Student Health Fee each quarter. This fee is separate from the Student Health Insurance. The student health fee entitles students to services at the DU Health and Counseling Center such as:

- General medical care or primary care gynecological visits at the Student Health Clinic;
- Consultation with staff physicians and nurse practitioners as often as needed;
- Coverage of some lab costs at 100%;
- Therapeutic injections;
- Inhalation treatments;
- Coverage of 100% of all in-house x-rays with $25 co-pay.

All students must have health insurance. This is a Colorado State law. Students must either show proof of insurance from their country or purchase insurance online during registration. If a student brings health insurance from home, the minimum amount allowed should be at least $500,000 for medical expenses. For questions and information see the HCC website: http://www.du.edu/health-and-counseling-center/

FOCUS CLASS FEE
All ELC students are required to pay the ELC focus class fee if the course requires one. This fee is to cover costs during the quarter that may include field trips and classroom speakers.

DU HEALTH AND COUNSELING CENTER
Students who have concerns about personal issues may make an appointment at the DU Health and Counseling Center to speak with a professional counselor.
The Health & Counseling Center is located on campus in the Ritchie Center for Sports and Wellness. The address and telephone number are listed at the end of this handbook. Students must call for an appointment to see a doctor. Only emergencies will be taken immediately.

The Health & Counseling Center Hours of Operation:

- Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays - 8:00 am - 5:00 pm
- Tuesdays - 9:00 am - 5:00 pm.

Office hours vary in the summer.
For more information visit the HCC website: http://www.du.edu/health-and-counseling-center/

WITHDRAWALS & REFUNDS
Students who leave the ELC before the end of the quarter must officially withdraw. The student must get a Withdrawal Form from the ELC staff or online from the Office of the Registrar: http://www.du.edu/registrar/.

If a student wishes to stop classes and does not follow the withdrawal procedures they will receive a failing Grade (F) for all classes. Whenever a student withdraws from classes at the ELC, he/she is given a “W” for withdrawal in place of grades. Additionally, students withdrawing after the first three days of classes are required to reapply for the next available quarter.

The University of Denver follows a strict tuition refund schedule, and full refunds are not given after the first few days of class. Absolutely no portion of tuition can be refunded after the first two weeks of classes. See http://www.du.edu/elc/apply/academic-calendar.html for the exact dates and refund percentages for each quarter. This information is also available from the ELC staff.

TEXTBOOKS
Students may buy the textbooks for ELC classes in the University of Denver Bookstore before the first day of classes. Students must buy new books for each class; they may not use previously-used books in any class.

ELC ACADEMICS

ORIENTATION AND PLACEMENT TESTING
Upon arrival at the ELC, new students attend a 4 day orientation to the ELC and DU community. The orientation includes tours of the ELC facilities and the DU campus as well as an introduction to various services such as the Health & Counseling Center, Campus Safety, International and Scholar Services for immigration advising, the DU sports facilities, and the DU library (Anderson Academic Commons).

Students are also assessed for placement into one of the six levels of study available at the ELC Foundations—Advanced High or into the Advanced Academic Strategies Certificate (AASC). Level placement is based on assessments of a student’s ability in reading, writing, listening, speaking, and grammar. During orientation, students register for classes according to the level into which they tested.
Students attend a 4 hour Post-Orientation session 3 weeks into the quarter. The orientation includes health & safety information, getting involved on the DU campus and in Denver, and Title IX rights and responsibilities.

ADVISING
Each student taking classes in the ELC (Foundations – Advanced High as well as for the Advanced Academic Strategies Certificate) will have an instructor assigned as their Advisor. The instructor will serve as the Advisor throughout the student’s course of study at the ELC.

On Registration Day, students will work with their Advisors to register for classes. Advisors can also help answer questions about campus resources or any additional assistance students might need.

CHANGE OF LEVEL
During the first week of classes, instructors provide opportunities for students to use all of their language skills and pay careful attention to new students. Students who believe they are not in the correct level can ask their teachers to watch them carefully during the first week. Neither the Director nor the Associate Director will make level changes without the recommendation of all of the student’s teachers. Section changes are not permitted unless a justifiable reason is provided. The ELC reserves the right to relocate students to increase the efficiency of the learning environment.

CLASS ATTENDANCE
Students at the ELC attend 20 hours of class each week. Students are expected to attend class regularly, be on time and to complete all work on time. There are important reasons for a strict attendance policy at the English Language Center.

- It is much easier and more effective to learn language through classroom instruction and practice. You must be in class to do this.
- Your work in class uses all the different English skills and helps you improve these skills every day. When you participate in class, you learn more quickly.
- You receive information in class which helps you complete work outside of class and do well on exams.
- Government regulations require students on F-1 visas to attend classes regularly to stay in status.

Attendance Policy

Absences
- I will be marked absent when I am not in class for any reason.
- The ELC does not have “excused” absences. However, students are highly encouraged to communicate absences to their instructors.
- I should be in class unless I am ill or I have an emergency.
- If I sleep in class, I will be asked to leave and I will be marked absent.

Late Class Arrival/Tardiness
- I am tardy if I arrive in class after the beginning time of the class.
- If I arrive 1-9 minutes late I will be marked tardy. Three separate late arrivals (in one class) equal 1 absence.
- If I arrive 10 or more minutes late, I will be marked absent.

Arriving late and interrupting a class is rude and impolite to both the teacher and the other students and may affect what needs to be accomplished during that class period. Students arriving late will receive a “0” for work and participation missed during that time. It is also possible that teachers will lock the classroom door so that a late student will not interrupt the class. In that case, the student will be expected to attend the next class. If you are late, enter the room quietly, without knocking on the door or apologizing to the teacher, and take a seat. Do not greet your friends or ask them questions.

Dismissal
- I must be making academic progress (completing all work carefully and being prepared for and actively participating in class) or I can be dismissed from the ELC.
- If my behavior distracts from the focus of the ELC program and classes, I may be dismissed from the ELC. Examples include, but are not limited to, disrespect for the instructor or my classmates, sleeping, and using my cell-phone inappropriately or without permission from the instructor.
- At 7 absences in any class that meets four days per week and 4 absences in any class that meets two days per week, I will be dismissed from the ELC.

Serious Illness
Students with a lengthy or serious illness may need to take a Medical Leave of Absence. In order to qualify for a Medical Leave of Absence, you will need to work with your instructors to complete the appropriate procedures and paperwork.

Incomplete
In some rare circumstances, students may be able to take a grade of Incomplete. Students who are unable, due to special circumstances, to complete the term and need to request an Incomplete for a course should refer to DU’s Incomplete Grade Policy at:
http://www.du.edu/registrar/records/incompletpolicy.html

Your Responsibilities
If you need to be absent for any reason, you must inform your instructors by email before the class or classes begin. If you know ahead of time that you will not be in class, please tell your teacher as soon as you know. You are responsible for getting and completing the assignments and any work that is done while you are absent.

Religious Holiday accommodation
The ELC honors religious holidays according to the university Chaplains calendar. DU Chaplain: https://www.du.edu/studentlife/religiouslife/

STUDENT CONDUCT & ACADEMIC PROBATION
Violations of the Attendance Policy, the Honor Code, and class conduct policies may result in dismissal from the ELC. Before students are dismissed, they are given the opportunity to speak to the ELC Standards Committee, which is a group of faculty members and administrators. The Standards Committee may choose, as an alternative to dismissal, to place students on Academic Probation. Students who are placed on Probation will be given specific guidelines for one or more academic quarters that must be followed. Failure to follow the Academic Probation Guidelines will result in immediate dismissal from the ELC. Academic Probation may include guidelines related to passing courses, attendance requirements, course performance, behavior, meeting with instructors, meeting with academic advisors, or other guidelines as determined to be appropriate by the Standards Committee.
UNIVERSITY OF DENVER HONOR CODE
All members of the University of Denver are expected to uphold the values of Integrity, Respect, and Responsibility. These values embody the standards of conduct for students, faculty, staff, and administrators as members of the University community. Our institutional values are defined as:

Integrity: acting in an honest and ethical manner.
Respect: honoring differences in people, ideas, and opinions.
Responsibility: accepting ownership for one’s own conduct.

DU Honor Code and Student Conduct – Policies and Procedures

PLAGIARISM (Academic Dishonesty)
Plagiarism is explained in detail on each course syllabus in the first class period of each level. In general, plagiarism is using or copying someone else’s work (an author or a friend, for example) without giving that person credit.

ACTIVITY ATTENDANCE
School activities are provided as additional language learning experiences and are considered part of the school curriculum. Student attendance is required for field trips or school activities held as part of a class or during class times. During these activities attendance is recorded.

MIDTERM EXAMS AND CONFERENCES
During the week following midterm week, a student who has a C- or below in any of his/her classes is asked to meet with the instructors in order to discuss specific concerns and receive advisement about the students’ progress in his/her studies.

FINAL EXAMINATIONS
The ELC does not allow students to take final exams before the regularly scheduled date. Please be sure to schedule flights and other vacation plans after your last exam. See your syllabus for exam dates.

Students who do not take the final examinations and do not formally withdraw from classes will receive a failing grade (F) and cannot return to the ELC the following term.

GRADING POLICY
Students are assigned final letter grades for each core course and a Pass/Fail (P/F) for all Focus classes. The ELC uses the University of Denver’s grading scale. However, the minimum passing grade at the ELC for any class is a C-, or 70%.

At the end of each quarter, students at all levels need to receive passing grades in each class in order to advance to the corresponding class in the next level. Students at the ELC must repeat any classes that they did not pass. However, they may only repeat a class one time. If they are not able to pass a class after two attempts, they will be dismissed from the program. If students are dismissed at the end of the second quarter, they will have the opportunity to appeal to the ELC Standards Committee.
In order to successfully graduate from the ELC and receive a completion certificate, students must pass all classes in the Advanced High level. A separate certificate will be provided upon full completion of all the courses in the Advanced Academic Strategies Certificate (AASC).

If a student fails a course and must repeat it, in the following quarter the student may be in two different levels for their courses, called split levels. When students are in split levels, there cannot be more than one level difference between any of their courses.

Grading Standards

Grades at the ELC are earned according to the following scale:

QUESTIONS ABOUT GRADES or GRADE APPEALS

Students who have questions about grades they receive on class assignments, tests, compositions, or final grade reports should talk to their instructors first. If there is still a question, the student can request a meeting with the Associate Director and the instructor.

To formally appeal a grade, students must follow DU’s Procedure for Grade Appeals

TRANSCRIPTS

ELC Student transcripts are available through the DU Office of the Registrar. Students can request official or unofficial transcripts online or by going to the Office of the Registrar http://www.du.edu/registrar/records/transcripts.html.

SKIPPING A LEVEL

Level skipping is available to all students who have completed at least one quarter in the ELC. Students who have classes all in one level may petition to skip an entire level. Students who are split between two levels (typically because the student failed one or more classes previously) may petition to skip the lower-level classes. Students may not petition to skip Advanced-High or the Advanced Academic Strategies Certificate (AASC).

Skipping a Complete Level – Students who are currently taking coursework in the Foundations through Intermediate High levels may petition to skip an entire level if the student has all classes in one level and the student earns As at the end of the quarter in all of those classes. This student is eligible to skip an entire level.

<thead>

Skipping a Part of a Level – Students who are currently taking coursework in multiple levels may also petition to take level-skipping exams. In this case, the lower-level classes that a student has are eligible to be skipped. Students must earn all As in the lower-level classes and at least a B or higher in the higher-level classes.

<table>
<tr>

For Example: A student has classes in Intermediate-Low (Integrated Skills and Writing) and Intermediate-High (Oral Communication & Applied Grammar). At the end of the quarter, this student earns an A in Integrated Skills and Writing and a B in Oral Communication and Applied Grammar. This student can petition to skip Intermediate-High Integrated Skills. This student must take level-skipping exams for Intermediate-High Integrated Skills. If the student successfully passes the exam, the student will be moved to all Advanced-Low courses. Students do not have to take level-skipping exams for Focus classes.

</tbody>

Level-Skipping Exams & Petition Process – At the end of each academic quarter, the Associate Director or Director will e-mail the Skip a Level Request Form to students who are eligible to take level-skipping exams. These exams will be given on the Orientation, Testing and Registration days at the beginning of the next quarter. This is the ONLY time that the tests will be given.

The cost for administering and evaluating these tests will be $100 for the student. Students must pay the $100 fee before taking the exams. Students will need to go to the ELC Main Office to pay the fee. Eligible students will then take the final exams in the level they wish to skip. Students must earn passing grades (70%) on all the final exams in the level they request to skip in order to move to the next level.

FOCUS CLASS REQUIREMENT

Students in Intermediate High, Advanced Low, and Advanced High must take at least one Focus Class each quarter in addition to the core classes. Focus classes are a required component of the ELC curriculum. In order to successfully graduate from Advanced High and receive a certificate, students must meet the following requirements:

- Students starting in Intermediate High or lower MUST successfully pass 3 Focus Classes
- Students starting in Advanced Low MUST successfully pass 2 Focus Classes
- Students starting in Advanced High MUST successfully pass 1 Focus Class

INSTRUCTOR OFFICE HOURS

Students who need additional help in their classes can always make appointments with their instructors. They may call instructors during regular ELC office hours or email them to set up an appointment. Instructors’ emails, office locations and office numbers can be found online on the ELC homepage, on the course syllabus, and in the Directory at the ELC.
STUDENT SERVICES

HOURS
The ELC Main Office is open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Occasionally, the ELC staff office will be closed briefly due to staff meetings and employee activities.

HOUSING
There are on- and off-campus apartments and houses. If students are interested in on-campus housing, they need to contact the Housing Department at 303-871-2246 or www.du.edu/housing. However, on-campus housing gives first priority to students who have started studying in a degree program and is often full. For off-campus housing, students should visit the Student Involvement Center in Driscoll North or www.du.edu/och/index.html or contact the ELC front office for a list of apartments in the DU area that the student can contact directly. The ELC does not have a Homestay Program.

LETTER REQUESTS
The ELC staff will write letters for students for opening bank accounts, the Colorado ID office, certification of enrollment letters for students to give to their sponsoring agencies, and other offices as necessary. Students who need a letter should request it from the staff.

All letters will be available on Fridays, after 12:00 pm. The social security and Colorado ID/driver's license letters cannot be written until the student has been registered for classes for at least 10 days so that the Department of Motor Vehicle system is updated with student information.

IMMIGRATION ADVISING
Students should go to the International House to speak with an International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) advisor whenever they have an immigration problem or question. ISSS will keep students informed when F-1 rules and regulations are updated. It is important to understand and follow nonimmigrant student regulations, so students should not hesitate to ask questions.

An ISSS advisor provides a required orientation to immigration regulations for new ELC students during the initial Orientation and Placement Testing at the beginning of the student's first quarter at the ELC. For information on Immigration information Contact the Office of International Student and Scholar Services and visit the website: http://www.du.edu/intl/isss/about.html.

WORKING PART-TIME
Immigration regulations allow international students to work part time (less than 20 hours per week) on campus while attending classes. Those interested in finding employment should contact Human Resources at 303-871-3460 or visit the DU website at www.du.edu/hr/employment/jobs.html for job listings. Student will also need to work with an advisor at ISSS. A student working on campus must obtain a social security number. A student must have a job before s/he is allowed to get a social security number. The supervisor will write a letter to the Social Security Administration regarding the job. The ELC curriculum is quite demanding, and it is not recommended that full-time students have a job.

For more information: http://www.du.edu/isss/advising.html
RECOMMENDATIONS
If a student needs a recommendation for a college or university application, he/she should contact their ELC Advisor for guidance.

It is the ELC policy that only students who are currently enrolled in or have already completed Advanced High will be recommended for DU or any other two- or four-year university or college. Students may, however, request a letter of progress before Advanced High.

DU IDENTIFICATION CARDS (I.D.)
ELC students will need to obtain a University of Denver "Pioneer" I.D. card (DU ID). Students will see the I.D. office (Driscoll Center South, basement) during the orientation tour and will return after registration to have their I.D. cards issued. Students who lose their card should go immediately to the I.D. office to have it replaced. There will be a $20 charge for the replacement card.

The I.D. card identifies a student at the University of Denver and allows him/her to use the library and Ritchie Center (gymnasium, weight room, swimming pool, and tennis courts) free of charge. ELC students will need the DU ID card in order to access ELC classrooms in Centennial Towers and other buildings on campus.

In addition, this card can also permit a student to attend athletic events at a reduced cost, as well as save the student money when purchasing tickets for events and services off-campus. Students should always ask if there is a student discount available. For more information about the Pioneer Card, please see www.du.edu/pioneercard/About_Your_card.htm.

RTD COLLEGE PASSES
Full-time ELC students can get an RTD College Pass (card) from the Pioneer ID Card Office (Driscoll Center South, basement). This card allows students full use of regular RTD bus and light rail services, including skyRide to DIA without paying any cash fare. Students may need to take public transportation for class field trips or an all-school event. In this case, they will need to either have a College Pass or pay for transportation themselves.

To receive a College Pass after you are registered for classes, bring your Pioneer Card to the Pioneer I.D. Card Office during normal office hours www.du.edu/pioneercard/About_Your_card.htm.

E-MAIL AND INTERNET
ELC students will automatically be assigned a DU e-mail account that can be accessed through PioneerWeb at http://pioneerweb.du.edu. The username of the account is the student’s 8-digit DU Id number and the passcode is the student’s birthday – mmddyy for example, Jan. 21, 1990 is 012190. The student must change the passcode to another six-character password that is a mixture of letters, numbers and special characters, before using the email account. The format for this e-mail address is firstname.lastname@du.edu.

The university will not notify students when their account has been set up. It is the students’ responsibility to log on to the account to make sure it is set up. Students will maintain their firstname.lastname@du.edu mailing address but MUST set up a "preferred" off-campus email address to which their mail automatically will be forwarded.
If the student changes his or her off-campus e-mail address she/he is responsible for updating the record: PLEASE log into http://pioneerweb.du.edu and set up a "preferred" off-campus email address. When the new address is updated, all future email sent to the firstname.lastname@du.edu address will automatically forward to the new preferred off-campus address.

Students must log on before a two-week period or the account will be disabled. If there are problems or questions, please contact the UTS help desk at 303-871-4700.

Access email and internet off-campus! Detailed instructions about how to do this are available on web site www.du.edu/uts/helpdesk/docs/networking/index.html.

DIRECTOR/ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR APPOINTMENTS

When a student would like to meet with the Director or Associate Director, the student should first talk with a staff member in the ELC’s main office, and they will assess the problem and refer the student to the appropriate person based on the nature of the issue or concern.

The staff will assist the student in scheduling an appointment with the Director and/or the Associate Director. The Director and Associate Director will make their best effort to respond to the student by email within 24 hours.

STUDENT COMPLAINTS/CONCERNS

Any student enrolled at the English Language Center at the University of Denver has the right to register a formal complaint for any issue or grievance. In order to register a formal complaint, the student must complete a Student Concern Form in the ELC’s Main Office.

When a Student Concern Form is completed, the operations staff will submit the form to the Director or Associate Director for review. The Director or Associate Director will then contact the student for a meeting, as needed, to discuss how best to resolve the issue. In some situations, the student may be directed to other campus resources.

It is the policy of the ELC to handle grievances promptly and with concern and care for everyone involved. After the situation is resolved, a copy of the concern form will be maintained in the student’s file.

DENVER AND THE COMMUNITY

The ISO plans many events throughout the year including an international student dinner, trips to the mountains, and special activities on campus. Students from many countries and cultures are active in the ISO. BUILDINGS and POLICIES

HOURS
The ELC Main Office is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Occasionally the ELC staff office will be closed briefly due to staff meetings and DU employee activities.

PARKING
Students need to purchase parking permits from DU Parking Services to park on campus. The City of Denver has designated the streets around the ELC as 1-hour limited parking. Students will receive a parking ticket from the city if they park on the street for more than one hour. The parking spaces around the ELC building are reserved for ELC Faculty and Staff only. Also, parking in the alley near the fraternities and houses is not allowed, as those are all private parking areas. Any car that is illegally parked may be towed away. To get the car back, it may cost around $250.

For more information about DU parking passes, visit the parking website: https://www.parking.du.edu/default.aspx

SMOKING
As of January 1, 2010, smoking is not allowed anywhere on University of Denver property. Students found smoking on DU property will be fined by Campus Safety.

• ELC students taking classes in the I-House, Centennial Towers, and other on-campus buildings may smoke only on public sidewalks, that is, those sidewalks that are next to streets. At the I-House, students may smoke only on the front (west) sidewalk and not on the sidewalk to the north of the building.
• Students smoking on public sidewalks need to be sure they are not making it difficult for other people to use the sidewalks.
• Cigarette butts must be put in ash trays, NOT THROWN ON THE SIDEWALK OR GROUND. Colorado has a law against littering (throwing trash on the ground/sidewalk), which calls for fines for up to $1,000 for people who do this. Ash trays are usually found next to classroom buildings. The butts may be carried on campus in order to throw them away.
• Students at the ELC may not smoke on the patio.
• Students at the ELC may not smoke in the front yard, the parking lot, or along the side wall.
• There is no smoking on ELC balconies. This is a fire regulation.

ELC BALCONY and I-HOUSE DOORS
The doors to the balconies at the ELC must be closed at all times. Students may go out these doors, but they may not leave them open in order to come back in through them. This is a fire regulation. Locked doors at the I-House may not be propped open. A door may be locked for fire regulations or for safety reasons.
STUDENT LOUNGE
The Student Lounge is the special area for student use. The ELC has furnished computers, a microwave, a refrigerator, and a telephone (for local calls only). There is also a collection of textbooks and dictionaries, which students may use and borrow. Students should feel free to read the magazines, use the computers, play the games, meet with their friends, and study in the lounge. It is theirs to enjoy. Students are asked to remember to put the games and books back and put all trash in the recycle bins or waste cans.

ELC STUDENT LOUNGE COMPUTERS
The ELC provides a number of Internet-accessible and printer-accessible computers for student use in the Student Lounge.

ANDERSON ACADEMIC COMMONS (Library)
Anderson Academic Commons, located on campus, is available for use by all ELC students. Students may use the facilities for research or studying. Students who want to use one of the study rooms must first sign up for it at the front desk by presenting their student I.D. For more information please visit the DU Library website: http://library.du.edu/

SAFETY INFORMATION
For emergency situations on campus: 303.871.3000

Students should always lock their residence hall rooms, apartments and/or cars. Thefts are common on any university campus. The University of Denver is generally a safe place to live and study, but it is a good idea to be cautious. Students walking across campus at night should have a friend go with them. If this is not possible, the Security Office offers someone to walk with you to and from anywhere on campus (or very near campus). The phone number for this free service is 303-871-2334. Additional information about safety is given during Orientation.
