

Healthy Peer Empowerment (HYPE) Peer Educator Internship Application

About Health Promotion

The Department of Health Promotion supports DU student success through efforts to reduce personal, campus, and community health risk factors. The Department of Health Promotion is committed to:

- Empowering DU students with the knowledge and skills they need to make healthy and success-oriented decisions through the incorporation of evidence-based initiatives
- Examining factors that influence DU students' health and success, and sharing relevant and timely information with the campus community
- Promoting an inclusive and healthy living and learning environment at DU

About the Health and Counseling Center

The mission of the HCC is to provide exceptional, inclusive, integrated health care. We promote student success and wellness through education, advocacy, and outreach to the University of Denver community.

Job Summary

HyPE Interns are a select group of student leaders who promote the health of the DU campus community. As part of the HCC Health Promotion team, HyPE Interns develop and implement outreach programs regarding pertinent health topics and resources, support the education and outreach efforts of the DU Health and Counseling Center, serve as liaisons between DU students and campus health professionals. HyPE interns are also required to complete one passion project per academic year.

Qualifications

Current University of Denver student in good academic standing

HyPE Interns must maintain student status throughout their entire year of service

No active or unresolved conduct violations

HyPE Interns must remain in good conduct standing throughout their year of service

Strong leadership skills and an ability to serve as a proactive and supportive team member

Excellent written and verbal communication skills

Ability to work effectively with diverse communities on campus

Passion for improving the health and well-being of the DU student community

Hours

Approximately 30-40 hours a quarter, primarily during evening hours

Deadline

Applications received by April 3rd at 8:00AM will be given preference. Positions will remain open until filled

NAME

DU EMAIL ADDRESS

CONTACT PHONE #

STUDENT ID #

PROGRAM/MAJOR

EXPECTED GRADUATION DATE

Please list other campus organizations that you belong to and any leadership positions you may hold within these organizations:

Why are you interested in becoming a HyPE intern? What do you hope to achieve for yourself and others?

What previous experiences have prepared you in some way to be a HyPE intern?

What other extracurricular and work responsibilities will you have and how will you manage your time?

How do your own identities impact the work you might do as a HyPE intern?

How do you see health and wellness as a social justice issue?

Please submit your completed application to hcc.hpfellow2@du.edu or dropped off at the Health and Counseling Center – Asbury location for Amy Wang.

For any additional questions, comments, or concerns, please feel free to email Amy Wang at hcc.hpfellow2@du.edu.