About the Health and Counseling Center:
The mission of the Health and Counseling Center (HCC) is to provide exceptional, inclusive, integrated healthcare. We promote student success and wellness through education, advocacy, and outreach to the University of Denver community.

About Health Promotion:
Vision: The Department of Health Promotion envisions a future where every member of the DU community will have the opportunity to learn, connect, and thrive in a supportive campus community.
Mission: Health Promotion works to achieve our vision by cultivating a thriving DU community through education, engagement, and sociocultural change.
Values: Health Promotion strives to embody the University's values of Excellence, Innovation, Engagement, Integrity, and Inclusiveness.

As part of the Health Promotion team, Intervene Peer Educators:
- Provide their peers with information and education about active bystander skills, gender violence, consent, and healthy relationships.
- Support the education and outreach efforts of Gender Violence Prevention and Education (GVPE), Health Promotion, and the Health and Counseling Center (HCC).
- Serve as liaisons between the HCC, DU Students, and campus partners.

Position Responsibilities
- Each Peer Educator is expected to complete between approximately 30-40 hours of work per quarter. This includes:
  - Facilitating 3-5 Intervene programs per month, including Intervene: DU, Unpacking Gender Violence, and occasional special request programs, both large and small scale. These events may be late at night or on weekends.
  - Attending weekly 1 hour Peer Educator meetings
  - Attending quarterly programs to support GVPE and HCC initiatives. This may involve GVPE events and programs, in-office administrative work opportunities, and staffing HCC events and/or other activities that support the promotion of resources. These events may be late at night or on weekends.
- Provide input, as available, to HCC processes and committees.

Training
- 20 hour Spring Training for new Peer Educators on Fridays from 10AM-12PM in the Spring Quarter. Peer Educators will be compensated for this time. Spring training is required in order to be an Intervene Peer Educator.
- ~8 hour Fall Training during the week before new student orientation in Fall 2020. Specific dates will be communicated. This training is required for all Peer Educators and will be compensated.
Requirements

• Peer Educators must:
  ○ have a passion for preventing gender violence and educating their peers on related topics.
  ○ display an ability to work effectively with diverse communities on campus.
  ○ be current DU students in good academic standing.
  ○ remain in good conduct standing with no active or unresolved conduct violations.
  ○ be available to attend all required trainings; special exceptions may apply, you will need to coordinate with the Coordinator and Fellow to determine.

Note that Peer Educators are representatives of the HCC and should be aware that their behaviors in and out of the office can be a reflection of the HCC and DU. Peer Educators will behave in ways that uphold our community values.
