

Managing Graduate School: Both within and outside the classroom

Graduate school can be a challenging time for students. Academic demands, career questions, and self-doubt frequently impact the health and functioning of graduate students. Additionally, relationships are often impacted outside the classroom, exacerbating experiences of stress, depressive symptoms, and anxiety. This group provides a place to receive support from other graduate students and explore relationship issues that are common during this phase of life.

Monday (weekly): 2-3:30pm (Jacaranda Palmateer, PsyD and Melissa Cole, PsyD) - @ HCC-Buchtel

DBT/ Emotional Wellness Workshop

Participants in this workshop focus on distress tolerance skills that will teach strategies for coping in crisis. Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) Workshop participants will learn how to capitalize on existing strengths and learn new skills to accept and tolerate emotional or physical pain. Mindfulness practice is also an important component of this skills-based group.

Understanding Self and Others

Past and present interactions with others contribute to shaping personality. This type of group is often the treatment of choice for people who experience troubled relationships (including romantic, family, and friend-related), loneliness, depression, anxiety, difficulty expressing emotions, self-criticism, and low self-esteem. They offer a safe environment to identify and explore feelings; to learn how to give and receive empathy; to give and receive support and feedback; to practice new, healthier ways of relating to others; and to foster connections to feel less lonely or isolated.

Tuesday (weekly): 2-3:30 pm (Wendy Morrison, PhD and Briana Johnson, LPC, LAC) - @ HCC-Buchtel

Tuesday (weekly): 3-4:30 pm (Anand Desai, PsyD and Lauren Levine, MA) - @ HCC-Asbury
