You and a guest are invited to the Fall DU Retirees General Meeting!

Join former colleagues and friends for a presentation by the Colorado Jazz Repertory Orchestra named Jazz 101. This CJRO consists of Art Bouton on sax, Eric Gunnison on piano, Ken Walker on bass and Mike Marilee on drums. You'll hear some great jazz and learn the vocabulary of the jazz musician. In just 20 minutes you'll learn to talk hip!

Date: Wednesday March 21
Time: 11:30 a.m—1:30 p.m.
Place: The Sie International Relations Complex, Magilione Hall 2201 East Gaylord St.

RSVP: To attend, respond by March 10th to Carole Burgess. Email Carole.Burgess@du.edu, or call (303) 871-3268 and leave a voice message. Let Carole know if you need free parking, and she will send you parking information and a permit. Those with special needs, please phone Lloyd Moore at 303-871-4284 to make arrangements.
About Art Bouton

Professor Bouton is first call saxophonist and woodwind performer. He is a founding member of the Lamont jazz faculty group the DU Jazz Faculty Combo. He is founder and Director of the Colorado Jazz Repertory Orchestra, an ensemble devoted to performing the finest in classic big band jazz and contemporary large ensemble jazz. Mr. Bouton regularly performs with the Colorado Symphony, Colorado Ballet, Opera Colorado, the Colorado Springs Philharmonic, the Colorado Music Festival Orchestra, and is an orchestra member at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts.

About the Sie Center and Maglione Hall

The Sié Center’s faculty is focused on understanding the evolving nature of twenty-first century violence and conflict. They endeavor to foster a research community focused on managing violence and enhancing resilience from the local to the global levels. Maglione Hall is a beautiful room located on the top (5th level) of the Sie Center. The amazing glass walls and outdoor patio provide great views of our city and mountains.

About the Food!

We are changing it up this year with an entirely new approach. We think you will like the new menu!
Salad: Romaine with orange vinaigrette dressing, or field greens and arugula with fruit, nuts and Honey-shallot vinaigrette
Entrees: Class chicken picatta or grilled salmon filet
Vegetarian: Past primavera with basil sauce
Fresh herbed asparagus
Rolls and butter
Dessert: Key lime cheesecake and chocolate ganache cake

DU Retirees Partners With University College

The University College Enrichment Program connects intellectually curious adults to DU’s outstanding faculty, facilities, programming, and Denver’s rich cultural community through non-credit classes without the pressures of exams, grades or admission requirements. The Program is now offering a new discount for DU Retirees! Call University College Student Support at 303-871-2291 or register online. Use code DURW18 for a 20% discount; some restrictions apply.
Upcoming Lamont Music Events

Mozart's Opera
Marriage of Figaro
April 19-22
Gates Concert Hall
Discount tickets available

Steel Drums
May 14
Gates Concert Hall
Limited number of free tickets

Lamont Symphony & Choirs
Mozart concert
May 31
Gates Concert Hall
Limited number of free Parterre seats

For ticket Information:
Contact DU Retirees volunteer Jea King at jeanette.king@du.edu or 303.979.1484.

Recently Retired

Paula R. Rhodes  College of Law  30-Jun-17
Maria C. Mata    Penrose Library   1-Aug-17
Richard D. Lamm  Inst. For Public Policy  3-Aug-17
David W Kundert  20-Aug-17
Frank L Lucero   Purchasing Services  1-Sep-17
Barbara J. Stephen Physics and Astronomy  1-Sep-17
Liane C. Beights Dept. of Mathematics  8-Sep-17
Nancy H. Allen   Penrose Library   31-Oct-17
R. Bruce Hutton  Daniels College of Business  31-Dec-17
John T. Soma     College of Law     31-Dec-17
Lucille M. Sandoval Business and Financial Affairs  2-Jan-18

In Memoriam

William Stickler  10-Jun-17
James Dunn       Physics and Astronomy  15-Sep-17
James Ciarlo     18-Oct-17
Alfred Coco      14-Dec-17