

Named scholarships are awarded annually based on the criteria established by the scholarship's donors. Examples of the criteria include, but are not limited to: superior academic achievement, demonstrated interest/accomplishment in a particular focus area and financial need.

Scholarships that Do Not Require a Separate Application

Students are automatically considered for these scholarships at the time of application to the graduate school programs.

Name	Description
Ben M. Cherrington Endowed Fellowship Fund	Established in 1977 by the American Institute of Research in honor of Ben Cherrington, HD '53, this endowed fellowship supports students in the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. Ben Cherrington was one of the founders of the school.
Chester Lee Brinser, III Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2007 by Sara Joann Upchurch and Allison Elizabeth Jeffords, the Chester Lee Brinser III Endowed Scholarship Fund provides scholarship support to students who are candidates in the Humanitarian Assistance Certificate program. Recipients are selected on the basis of academic merit and demonstrated financial need, and must have and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better on a 4.0 scale. Scholarship recipients are designated Brinser Scholars.
Christian Updike, MD Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2011 by Jan C. Updike, MD, and Phyllis A. Updike, DNS. Scholarship recipients shall be Korbel graduate students seeking the Certificate in Global Health Affairs (or its equivalent) selected by the Dean, in consultation with his or her Director of Admissions and the Global Health Director, on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Christian Updike Scholars.

Josef Korbel School Named Scholarships

UNIVERSITY of
DENVER

JOSEF KORBEL SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

2201 S. Gaylord Street • Denver, CO 80208 • 303.871.2544
korbeladm@du.edu • www.du.edu/korbel

David A. Price Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 1999 by David A. Price, PhD '75, the David A. Price Scholarship Fund supports graduate students in the Josef Korbel School of International Studies (JKSIS) Conflict Resolution Program. Recipients are selected on the basis of academic merit and financial need. Recipients are designated as David A. Price Scholars.
The Dr. Stephen and Elaine Berman Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2013 by Dr. Stephen and Elaine Berman, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.
Donald W. Hoagland Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2012 by the Hoagland Family, the Donald W. Hoagland Endowed Scholarship Fund provides scholarship support to students who are committed to improving the lives of people in the developing world. Scholarship recipients shall be selected by the Dean on the basis of academic/merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Hoagland Scholars.
The General George Casey Endowed Scholarship	Provides scholarship support for United States military veterans enrolled as graduate students at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. The scholarship is reserved for graduate students who have served in the United States armed forces, who exhibit leadership qualities and who been admitted to the Josef Korbel School.
Georgia R. Imhoff Endowed Scholarship Fund	The endowed scholarship fund provides scholarship support to students who are selected based on academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.

Jane Page Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2002 by the Greenlee Family Foundation and William D. Stanfill, in honor of Jane Page, the Jane Page Endowed Scholarship Fund supports female graduate students studying Human Rights, Conflict Resolution or who are in the Master's International program at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. Recipients are selected based on academic merit and demonstrated financial need, and must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better on a 4.0 scale. Recipients shall be designated as Jane Page Scholars.
John T. Allen Endowed Fellowship Fund	Established in the early 1970s by John T. Allen, this endowed fellowship supports students on the basis of academic merit and financial need.
John W. and Angelina Rice Endowed Memorial Scholarship Fund	Established in 2003 by James T., BSBA '74, and Ann Bishop Lampman, BA '73, in honor of Dr. John W. Rice (Vice Chancellor of Students, 1969-1982) and Mrs. Angelena Rice, the John W. and Angelena Rice Memorial Endowed Scholarship Fund supports graduate students in the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. Recipients are selected based on academic merit and demonstrated financial need, and must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or better on a 4.0 scale. Scholarship recipients must make a documented commitment to pursuing meaningful employment or a significant level of service (funded or volunteer) in international relations or related fields following their enrollment at the Josef Korbel School. Recipients are designated as Rice Scholars.

The Johnston R. Livingston Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2014 by Johnston R. Livingston, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.
Josef Korbel Endowed Fellowship Fund	Established in 2010 by Madeleine Korbel Albright, John Korbel, and Kathy Silva to honor the legacy of Josef Korbel at the University, the Josef Korbel School Endowed Fellowship Fund provides fellowship support to Master's and Doctoral students. Fellowship recipients shall be selected by the Dean and the amount of each award shall be awarded on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Fellowship recipients shall be designated as Josef Korbel Fellows.
Josef Korbel Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 1975 by alumni in honor of the school's former director, Josef Korbel, the Josef Korbel Endowed Scholarship Fund supports deserving Korbel students.
Julie & Christopher R. Hill Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2013 by Julie and Christopher Hill, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.
Lawrence G. Senesh Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2004 through a bequest from Lawrence G. Senesh, Professor Emeritus of Economics, this endowed scholarship supports graduate students.

Lu Chung Tao Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 1998 by Mrs. Diamon Tao, '79, the Lu Chung Tao Endowed Scholarship Fund supports outstanding graduate or Ph.D. students pursuing a degree at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. Preference is given to Chinese students who are current students or alumni of Beijing University with an academic focus in economics and/or financial service development. Recipients must also have a cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least a 3.5 on a 4.0 scale, demonstrated leadership ability, financial need, and a commitment to fostering international understanding. Recipients are designated as Lu Chung Tao Scholars.
Mandula Korbel Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2012 by Krishen Mehta, '72 MBA, the Mandula Korbel Endowed Scholarship Fund at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies provides scholarship support to graduate students. The scholarship recipient shall be selected by the Dean or his or her delegate on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Mandula Korbel Scholars.
Marie-Louise Cain Endowed Scholarship Fund	Establishes in 2000 by Melinda Cain Widener, MA '80, PhD '92, in memory of her mother Marie-Louise Cain, MA '66, the Marie-Louise Cain Endowed Scholarship Fund supports graduate students. Recipients are selected by the Dean based on academic merit and demonstrated financial need, and must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better on a 4.0 scale. Recipients are designated as Marie-Louise Cain Scholars.

The Michael R. Altenberg Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2014 by Michael R. Altenberg, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.
Mimi Fowler Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2012 by Margaret Fowler, the Mimi Fowler Endowed Scholarship supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean based on academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Specifically, preference will be given to students coming from and planning to return to countries under-represented at the Josef Korbel School. A secondary preference will be given to students from Korea. Scholarships recipients must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or better on a 4.0 scale. Recipients are designated as Mimi Fowler Scholars.
Nathan Altshuler Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2011 by Janet C. Tuthill, MA '75, the Nathan Altshuler Endowed Scholarship Fund provides scholarship support to graduate students. Scholarship recipients shall be selected by the Dean on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Nathan Altshuler Scholars.
Nicholas and Nancy Petry Endowed Fund	Established in 1996 by Nick and Nancy Petry, the Nicholas and Nancy Petry Endowed Fund benefits outstanding graduate students. Recipients are selected on the basis of academic merit and financial need, and must maintain a GPA of 3.5. Recipients must also possess a cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least 3.5 on a 4.0 scale and have demonstrated leadership ability as an undergraduate and a commitment to fostering international understanding and promoting human values. Recipients are designated as Nicholas and Nancy Petry Scholars.

Philip G. Clay Family Endowed Scholarship for the USMC	The endowed scholarship is available to graduate students currently on active duty, in the reserves or who have served in the U.S. Marine Corps that are pursuing a graduate degree. Recipients are selected based on academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Recipients shall be designated as Philip G. Clay Family Scholars.
Quigg and Virginia Newton Endowed Fund	Established in 1997 by Quigg and Virginia S. Newton. Scholarship recipients shall be graduate or Ph.D. students selected by the Dean on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrate financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Newton Scholars.
Robert C. Good Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2011 by Stephen L. Good. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Robert C. Good Scholars.
Robert & Gloria Perito Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2014 by Robert and Gloria Perito, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.
Robert O. Anderson Endowed Fellowship Fund	Established in 1968 by Robert O. Anderson, HD '72, former DU trustee, the Robert O. Anderson Endowed Fellowship Fund supports students on the basis of academic merit and financial need.
Sara Hoagland Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 1997 by Donald and Mary Hoagland in honor of their daughter, Sara, MA '81, the Sara Hoagland Endowed Scholarship Fund supports fellowships based on need and merit. Must maintain a 3.0 GPA out of a 4.0 scale.

SIE Cheou-Kang Fellowship Fund	Established to honor Sié Chéou-Kang, the Sié Chéou-Kang Fellowship is housed in the the Sié Center. It offers a unique program to a select group of exceptional scholars, the Sié Fellows, who seek a career in international security, diplomacy, or a related field. Sié Fellows receive a two-year full-tuition scholarship to the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. The Sié Fellowship is highly competitive. Each year, the Sié Fellowship is awarded to 10 incoming students with a previous history of academic success (high GPA and GRE scores) and a demonstrated interest in International Security and Diplomacy (relevant internship and work experience). All completed applications are considered with no additional forms or essays required. Applicants are encouraged to complete their applications by the January 15th application deadline. The Sié curriculum is tailored to its Fellows' interests. Sié Fellows can pursue any of the degrees offered at the Josef Korbel School, including International Security; International Development; Global Finance, Trade and Economic Integration; and International Human Rights. Fellows are encouraged to select an elective curriculum that will meet their long-term career goals and are required to complete an intensive internship in a related area. The Sié Center also supports opportunities for graduates of the Sié Fellows program to network with other Sié Fellows throughout their careers.
--------------------------------	--

St. John-Lukens Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2009 by Michael G. St. John, the purpose of this scholarship is to foster an understanding of world politics among United States military leaders by providing scholarship support to officers enrolled in the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. Scholars shall be selected by the Dean based on academic merit and their capacity for effective leadership. Preference shall be given to active-duty officers currently serving in the United States military, and to officers currently serving in the U.S. military reserve.
Stanley Hornbeck Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 1971 by Vivienne Barkalow Hornbeck in honor of Stanley Hornbeck, this endowed scholarship supports students who have a special interest and have demonstrated a capability in Asian studies.
Stephanie and Ed Benton Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2012 by Edgar Benton, the Stephanie and Ed Benton Endowed Scholarship Fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Scholarship recipients shall be designated as Benton Scholars.
The Suki Hoagland Family Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2013 by the Suki Hoagland Family, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students in the MA in International Development degree at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.

Two Sisters Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2012 by sisters Patricia Cooper and Anne Carter, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need. Specifically, preference shall be given to international female students from South Asia. In the event that an international female student is not identified, an alternative female candidate will be selected. Recipients must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or better on a 4.0 scale. Recipients shall be designated as Two Sisters Scholars.
Szyliowicz Language Support Endowed Fund	Established in 2010 by Joseph S. Szyliowicz, BA '53, the Joseph S. Szyliowicz Language Support Endowed Fund provides financial support to help defray the costs for intensive language training to outstanding students at the Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver. Award recipients shall be selected on the basis of academic merit and financial need. Recipients shall be designated as Joseph S. Szyliowicz Fellows.
The William Deming Stanfill Endowed Scholarship	Established in 2014 by William Stanfill, the endowed scholarship fund supports graduate students. Recipients shall be selected by the Dean in consultation with the Director of Admissions on the basis of academic merit and/or demonstrated financial need.
W. Robert Laitos Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 1999 by W. Robert Laitos, MA '79, the W. Robert Laitos Endowed Scholarship Fund supports graduate students. Recipients are selected on the basis of academic merit and financial need, and must have and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better on a 4.0 scale. Recipients are designated as Laitos Scholars.

Vincent Connelly Endowed Scholarship Fund	Established in 2008 by Vincent F. Connelly, the Vincent Connelly Endowed Scholarship Fund supports outstanding graduate students. Recipients are selected based on academic merit and financial need. Recipients are designated as Connelly Scholars.
---	---