SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

During my career I have been both an invited speaker and lecturer at diverse venues in the U.S. and in Europe. From 1975 through 1990 I spoke largely on resolving the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. During the 1980s, I often spoke on nuclear disarmament especially as it concerned European disarmament of US and Soviet medium range missiles. I continue public speaking, and speak about once a month on issues of the Middle East, Africa, EU economic Integration and the future of global peace movements. Venues I have spoken at include but are not limited to:

- University of Athens
- University of Salinka (Greece)
- University of Turku (Finland)
- University of Copenhagen
- University of Mexico
- University of Kiev – Conference sponsored by Natural Resource Defense Fund and Soviet Peace Committee
- World Conference Against the A and H Bomb, Hiroshima, Japan

Invited Speaker (war in the Middle East), “Democracy Now” Radio, 2007.

Regular commentator on KGNU (most recently in May on the events in Lebanon, in early July on US-Iranian crisis and occasional commentator to national media (usually on the Middle East)
