Walk a day in their shoes... Do you remember what it was like to be in middle school? Forget everything you know and experience what middle school looks like at Ricks. Teachers, administrators, and current Middle School families will answer questions. Join us to learn how middle school program will take our students learning to “Ricksfinity” and beyond. This event is for all parents of Primary students; adults only please. Childcare is available through Margaret.Wright@du.edu