

[1-Year Extension Amendment Related to COVID-19]

Amendments to the “Policies and Procedures Relations to Faculty Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure”

Approved by the Faculty Senate 4/3/2020

Approved by the Faculty 4/15/2020

Approve by FEAC 4/23/2020

If eligible, faculty in the Professorial Series in University Libraries, Teaching Professorial Series, Clinical Professorial Series, Professors of the Practice Series, and Research Professorial Series will receive a one-year extension in their employment contracts with a corresponding one-year delay of all administrative procedures including for review, reappointment, promotion, and appeal. To be eligible for the one-year extension, faculty must (a) be employed at the University of Denver from March 1st to June 15th, 2020, (b) be up for review for contract renewal where the review process begins after March 1st of 2020, and (c) request the one-year extension of the administrative head of their academic unit by September 1, 2020 (so that a clear record of the approved extension can be made in their personnel file).

If eligible, faculty in the Tenure-line Professorial Series without tenure will be continued in rank for an additional year beyond the final year of the agreed-upon probationary period with a corresponding one-year delay of all administrative procedures including for promotion, tenure, and appeal. To be eligible for the one-year extension, faculty must (a) be employed at the University of Denver from March 1st to June 15th, 2020, (b) be up for review for tenure where the review process begins after March 1st of 2020, and (c) request the one-year extension of the administrative head of their academic unit by September 1, 2020 (so that a clear record of the approved extension can be made in their personnel file).
