I. INTRODUCTION

The University is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which people are treated with dignity, decency, and respect. The environment of the University should be characterized by mutual trust, freedom of inquiry and expression, and the absence of intimidation, oppression, and exploitation. People in this community should be able to work and learn in a safe atmosphere. The accomplishment of this goal is essential to the academic mission of the University.

Consistent with this commitment, the University will not tolerate any unlawful discrimination, harassment, or gender-based violence of any kind. When the University becomes aware that a member of the University community may have been subjected to or affected by discrimination, harassment, gender-based violence, the University will take prompt, appropriate action to enforce this policy. The University’s Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX (EOIX) is responsible for enforcing this policy pursuant to the University’s Comprehensive Discrimination and Harassment Procedures and Title IX Sexual Harassment Procedures, which offer options for informal and formal resolution.

This policy and the Comprehensive Discrimination and Harassment Procedures and Title IX Sexual Harassment Procedures are intended to comply with the prohibitions of all applicable federal, state, and local non-discrimination laws.

II. POLICY OVERVIEW

A. Title IX

The University prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities, including sexual misconduct, pay discrimination based on sex, discriminatory pay practices based on sex, and sex discrimination affecting compensation. The University is committed to complying with Title IX of the Education Amendment Act of 1972 and operating the University’s education programs... and activities in a manner consistent with applicable federal law and regulations.

B. Equal Opportunity

The University also provides equal opportunity in employment, educational activities, and other programs to all employees, students, and applicants. The University prohibits discrimination against in any condition of employment or opportunity because of race, color, national origin, age (for employment 40 and over), religion, creed, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, genetic information, military enlistment, or veteran status.

C. Pay Transparency

Employees are not prohibited from discussing their salaries and/or compensation with other employees and non-employees. The University will not discharge, discipline, or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the University, or (c) consistent with the University’s legal duty to furnish information. 42 C.F.R. 60-1.35(c).

D. Equal Pay Act and Pay Equity

The Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended, prohibits sex discrimination in payment of wages to members of the opposite sex performing substantially equal work, in jobs that require equal skill, effort, and responsibility under similar working conditions, in the same establishment.

The University is also committed to the principle of pay equity, and expressly prohibits disparate pay on the basis of an employee’s race, color, national origin, age (over 40 for employment), religion, creed, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, genetic information, military enlistment, or veteran status. The University also prohibits pay discrimination based on sex, discriminatory pay practices based on sex, and sex discrimination affecting compensation.

E. Application

This policy applies to students, employees, and third parties and extends to all University activities, both on and off-campus.
For purposes of this Policy and the Comprehensive Discrimination and Harassment Procedures and Title IX Sexual Harassment Procedures (collectively, Procedures), Students are defined under the as any individual registered for or auditing classes at the University; enrolled in any University program; or on University premises for any purpose related to the same regardless if the class, program, or other education activity is credit earning or part of a degree or non-degree program (“Students”). An individual is considered a Student under this definition if they have completed the immediately preceding term and are enrolled for a subsequent term or program; and if they are representing the University between terms or programs; or, if they are not officially enrolled for a particular term, they have a continuing relationship with the University.

University employees are defined under the Policy and the Procedures as all full-time and part-time faculty, University staff, Student employees, wage (including temporary employees), professional research staff, and post-doctoral fellows (“Employees”).

Third parties are defined under the Policy and the Procedures as consisting of contractors, vendors, visitors, applicants, or other third parties (“Third Parties”).

III. PROHIBITED CONDUCT UNDER THIS POLICY

The following conduct, collectively referred to as “Prohibited Conduct,” is prohibited under this policy

A. Title IX Prohibited Conduct

Title IX Prohibited Conduct\(^1\) includes the following specifically defined forms of alleged conduct where the conduct occurred in the United States and in the University’s education program or activity. The University’s education program or activity includes the locations, events, or circumstances over which the University exercised substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the Title IX Prohibited Conduct occurs, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the University. The Title IX Sexual Harassment Procedures apply to reports of Title IX Prohibited Conduct.

Title IX Prohibited Conduct is conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. Quid Pro Quo Harassment

Quid Pro Quo Harassment is conduct where an Employee of the University conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.

\(^1\) This term includes what is defined under 34 C.F.R. 106.30(a) as Sexual Harassment.
Quid Pro Quo Harassment can occur regardless of whether the condition proposed by the Employee is communicated expressly or impliedly. Examples of Quid Pro Quo Harassment include but are not limited to:

- A professor offers a student a higher grade in a class in exchange for having sex with or going on a date with the professor.
- An employee offers a student an employment opportunity in exchange for having sex with or going on a date with the employee.
- A student is offered a research opportunity by an employee in exchange for a sexual relationship.

2. Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment is unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to a University Education Program or Activity. Such conduct includes unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature and may include unwelcome conduct on the basis of sex, sex stereotyping, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

The term “effectively denies” does not require a Complainant to be entirely physically excluded from educational opportunities and may be established when the conduct so undermines and detracts from the individual’s educational experience.

3. Sexual Assault

Sexual Assault is defined as any sexual act directed against another person, without the Consent of the other person, including instances where the other person is incapable of giving Consent. Sexual Assault can occur between individuals of the same or different sexes and/or genders. Sexual Assault includes the following:

a. Rape

   Rape means (1) penetration (2) no matter how slight (3) of the vagina or anus with any body part of object, or (4) oral penetration by a sex organ of another person (5) without Consent.

b. Sodomy

   Sodomy means (1) oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, (2) without the Consent of that person, including instances where that person is unable to give Consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

c. Sexual Assault with an Object

   Sexual Assault with an Object is (1) the use of an object or instrument to penetrate, (2) however slightly, (3) the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, (4) without that person’s Consent, including instances where that person is unable to give Consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

d. Fondling

Fondling is (1) the touching of the private body part of another person (buttocks, genitals, breasts) (2) for the purpose of sexual gratification, (3) without the Consent of that person, including instances where that person is unable to give Consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

e. Incest

Incest is (1) nonforcible sexual intercourse (2) between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

f. Statutory Rape

Statutory Rape is (1) nonforcible sexual intercourse (2) with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

g. Consent

For all forms of Sexual Assault set forth above under this policy, Consent is defined as (1) mutually understandable, clear, knowing and voluntary affirmative permission (2) given through clear words or actions (3) regarding the willingness to engage in and the conditions for sexual activity.

Consent cannot be obtained by:

a. Incapacitation which means that an individual is impaired to such a level that they lack the ability to make informed, rational judgments about whether or not to engage in sexual activity.
   a. A person who is incapacitated is unable, temporarily or permanently, to give Consent because of mental or physical helplessness, sleep, unconsciousness, or lack of awareness that the sexual activity is taking place.
   b. A person may be incapacitated as a result of the consumption of alcohol or other drugs, or due to a temporary or permanent physical or mental health condition.
   c. Consent cannot be gained by taking advantage of the incapacitation of another, where the person initiating sexual activity knew or reasonably should have known that the other was incapacitated.

b. Force, which means, physical violence involving a person exerting control over another person through the use of physical force. Examples of physical violence include hitting, punching, slapping, kicking, restraining, strangling, and brandishing or using any weapon.

c. Threats, which are words or actions that would compel a reasonable person to engage in unwanted sexual activity. Examples include threats to harm a person physically, to reveal private information to harm a person’s reputation, or to cause a person academic or economic harm.

d. Coercion is the use of an unreasonable amount of pressure to induce participation in sexual activity. Coercion is more than an effort to persuade, entice, or attract another person to have sex. When a person makes clear a decision not to participate in a particular form of sexual contact or sexual intercourse, a decision to stop, or a decision not to go beyond a certain sexual interaction, continued pressure can be coercive. In evaluating whether coercion was used, the University will consider (i) the frequency of the application of the pressure, (ii) the intensity of the pressure, (iii) the degree of isolation of the person being pressured, and (iv) the duration of the pressure.

e. Abuse of Power occurs when an individual in a position of authority, whether that authority is real or perceived, induces another individual to engage in activity that would otherwise be nonconsensual based on the need for a specific performance or duty (e.g. grading, performance evaluation).

4. Dating Violence

Dating Violence is conduct defined as an act of violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the other individual and where the existence of such a relationship is determined based on consideration of the (1) length of the relationship, (2) type of relationship, and (3) frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

5. Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence is a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the individual shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the individual as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the individual under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Colorado, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the State of Colorado.

6. Stalking

Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (1) fear for their safety or the safety of others or (2)

2 The Title IX regulation at 34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a) defines Dating and Domestic Violence as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8) and 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10).

3 The Title IX regulation at 34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a) defines Stalking as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30).
suffer substantial emotional distress.

a. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which a person directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any actions, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about another person, or interferes with another person’s property.

b. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant.

c. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

B. Discrimination/Harassment Prohibited Conduct

Discrimination/Harassment Prohibited Conduct includes the following specifically defined forms of alleged conduct when such conduct does not meet the definition of Title IX Prohibited Conduct and when the conduct (a) occurred on property owned or controlled by the University; (b) occurred in the context of an employment or education program or activity of the University, including but not limited to University-sponsored study abroad, research, on-line, or internship programs (c) had continuing adverse effects on University premises, including posing a risk of harm to the community, or (3) had continuing adverse effects in an employment or education program or activity off University premises.

The Comprehensive Discrimination and Harassment Procedures apply to reports of Discrimination/Harassment Prohibited Conduct. Discrimination/Harassment Prohibited Conduct is conduct that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. Discrimination

Discrimination on the basis of a protected status is an action or behavior that results in impermissible, negative, or different treatment of an individual based, in whole or in part, upon the person’s race, color, national origin, ancestry, age, religion, creed, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy, military enlistment, veteran status or genetic information.

Discrimination also includes an allegation of a failure to provide reasonable accommodations as required by law, such as for disability, religion, or creed.

2. Discrimination in violation of the Equal Pay Act

Discrimination in Violation of the Equal Pay Act occurs when employees of one sex are paid wages at a rate less than the rate at which employees of the opposite sex are paid for equal work on jobs the performance of which requires equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and which are performed under similar working conditions, except where such payment of wages is made pursuant to: (i) a seniority system, (ii) a merit system, (iii) a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, or (iv) a differential based on any other factor other than sex. For purposes of this provision wage means all forms of payment made to or on behalf of employees as renumeration for employment.

3. Harassment

Harassment on the basis of a protected status is a form of discrimination based, in whole or in part, upon the person’s race, color, national origin, ancestry, age, religion, creed, disability, sex (including unwanted sexual advances or conduct of a sexual nature), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy, military enlistment, veteran status or genetic information and includes the following:

a. Quid Pro Quo Harassment – Unwelcome, unwanted conduct when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or participation in a University program or activity; or

b. Hostile Environment Harassment – Unwelcome, unwanted conduct that is sufficiently severe or pervasive to interfere with a person’s work, academic performance, or participation in a University education program or activity, such that a reasonable person who consider the environment intimidating, hostile, or abusive.

4. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact is (1) any intentional (not incidental or accidental), (2) sexual, touching, (3) however slight, (4) with any object or body part (as described below), (5) performed by a person upon another such person, without Consent, as defined in Section III.A.3.g of this policy.

Examples of Non-Consensual Sexual Contact include (a) intentional touching of the breasts, buttocks, or genitals, whether clothed or unclothed, or intentionally touching another with any of these body parts; and (b) making another person touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts.

Nonconsensual Sexual Contact includes Sexual Assault, as defined in Section III.A.3 that does not occur in the University’s Education Program or Activity.

5. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse is (1) any penetration, (2) however slight (3) with any object or body part (as described below) (4) performed by a person upon another person, (5) without Consent, as defined in Section III.A.3.g of this policy.

Examples of Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse include (a) vaginal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger; (b) anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger; and (c) any contact, no matter how slight, between the mouth of one person and the genitalia of another person.

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse includes Sexual Assault, as defined in Section III.A.3 that does not occur in the University’s Education Program or Activity.

6. Sexual Exploitation

Sexual Exploitation occurs when a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for their own advantage or benefit or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the individual being exploited, when that conduct does not otherwise constitute Prohibited Conduct under this policy. Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to:

i. Prostituting another person;

ii. Recording or photographing private sexual activity and/or a person’s private parts (genitalia, breasts, or buttocks) without knowledge and agreement of the other party;

iii. Disseminating or posting images of private sexual activity and/or a person’s private parts (genitalia, breasts, or buttocks) without knowledge and agreement of the other party;

iv. Allowing third parties to observe private sexual activity, such as from a hidden location (e.g. closet) or through electronic means (e.g., Skype, FaceTime, livestreaming images);

v. Engaging in voyeurism (e.g. watching privacy sexual activity without the consent of the participants or viewing another person’s private parts (including genitalia, breasts, or buttocks) in a place where that person who have a reasonable expectation of privacy);

vi. Endangering the health and safety of another without the knowledge and agreement of the other party (such as knowingly exposing another individual to a sexually-transmitted infection);

vii. Exposing one’s private parts (including breasts, buttocks, or genitals) in a non-consensual circumstance or inducing another to expose such private parts;

viii. Causing the incapacitation of another person (through alcohol, drugs, or any other means) for the purpose of compromising that person’s ability to give Consent to sexual activity; or

ix. Using a fake or stolen identity for an online persona to deceive or manipulate another person into a romantic or sexual relationship, also known as catfishing.

7. Intimate Partner Violence

Intimate Partner Violence includes any act of violence or threatened act of violence that occurs between individuals who are involved or have been involved in a sexual, dating, spousal, domestic, or other intimate relationship. Intimate Partner Violence includes Dating Violence and Domestic Violence, as defined in Section III.A.4 and III.A.5 that does not occur in the University’s Education Program or Activity. The existence of such a relationship is determined based on consideration of the (1) length of the relationship,
(2) type of relationship, and (3) frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Physical violence means that a person is exerting control over another person through the use of physical force. Examples of physical violence include hitting, punching, slapping, kicking, restraining, strangling, and brandishing or using any weapon.

8. Stalking

Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to (1) fear for their safety or the safety of others or (2) suffer substantial emotional distress.

   a. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which a person directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any actions, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about another person, or interferes with another person’s property.

   b. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant.

   c. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Stalking includes Stalking, as defined in Section III.A.6 that does not occur in the University’s Education Program or Activity.

9. Physical Misconduct Based on a Protected Status

Physical Misconduct Based on a Protected Status means any intentional (not incidental or accidental) act causing or likely to cause bodily harm to any person when there is reasonable cause to believe the act was motivated, in whole or in part, by the protected status of another person. Protected status includes race, color, national origin, ancestry, age, religion, creed, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy, military enlistment, veteran status or genetic information.

10. Failure to Inform Supervisor of a Consensual Sexual Relationship with a Student or a Supervisee

The University strongly discourages romantic or sexual relationships between a teacher and student or between a supervisor and supervisee. In the event of such a relationship between a teacher and student or between a supervisor and supervisee, the person in a position of authority must notify their own supervisor of the relationship so that the supervisor can address any issues raised by the relationship through this policy. Failure to provide such notice is a violation of this policy.
1. For purposes of this policy, teacher includes a faculty member, teaching assistant, graduate student, administrator, coach, advisor, counselor, professional housing staff, program director or other University employee having supervisory, teaching, mentoring, or other evaluative responsibilities for students.

2. Where a Complainant who in a subordinate position alleges Sexual Harassment or Harassment on the Basis of a Protected Status pursuant to this policy, and the Respondent has not disclosed the relationship as provided herein, the Respondent’s assertion that the Complainant consented to the relationship shall not be a sufficient defense for Prohibited Conduct.

11. Retaliation

Retaliation means an adverse action or other form of negative treatment, including but not limited to intimidation, threats, coercion, discrimination, or harassment, carried out in response to a good faith reporting of or opposition to Prohibited Conduct; an individual’s or group’s participation, including serving as a witness, administering, or assisting in an investigation and/or resolution of a report under this policy, or otherwise exercising authority under this policy; or other form of good faith opposition to what an individual reasonably believes to be Prohibited Conduct under this policy.

1. Individuals are also protected from Retaliation for making good faith requests for accommodations on the basis of religion or disability.

2. To be a violation of this policy, the challenged actions or treatment must be sufficient to discourage a reasonable person from further reporting, participation, or opposition.

3. Charging an individual with a violation of this policy for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of any process under this policy does not constitute Retaliation prohibited under this Policy. The exercise of rights protected under the First Amendment also does not constitute Retaliation under this policy.

4. The University will treat Retaliation of a separate incident of Prohibited Conduct under this policy.

12. Obstruction

Obstruction means when any person, on their own behalf or on behalf of another person, intentionally deters, interferes, or hinders:

1. The University’s ability to conduct an investigation (e.g., the destruction or request to destroy relevant evidence after notice of the University’s investigation);

2. Another person from reporting allegations of Prohibited Conduct; or

3. Another person from participating in any process under this policy.

IV. RECORDS

The University will not store records related to the investigation of any allegations of discrimination, harassment, and/or gender-based violence in personnel files of employees reporting alleged discrimination, harassment, and/or gender-based violence, and instead the University will retain such records in a separate secure location.

V. PROCESS OVERVIEW

The Associate Vice Chancellor for Equal Opportunity and Title IX shall develop and publish procedures that describe the rights and obligations under the policy as well as clarify definitions and scope within this policy. The Associate Vice Chancellor for Equal Opportunity and Title IX submits recommendations for substantive changes to the Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor and the Senior Vice Chancellor for Business and Financial Affairs for their review and approval.

VI. DEFINITIONS

Complainant means an individual who is alleged to have experienced Prohibited Conduct as defined in this policy.

Education Program or Activity is the locations, events, or circumstances over which the University exercised substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the Title IX Prohibited Conduct occurs, and also includes any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the University.

Respondent means an individual who is alleged to have engaged in Prohibited Conduct as defined in this policy.
