OVERVIEW OF LANGAR@DU

The Langar@DU is unique for the University of Denver in 3 ways:

1. Student led from concept through institutional approval through implementation.
“This event embodies the 4D Experience through facilitating and celebrating community and connection. We are inspired by these students’ commitment to ‘unity through community.’ “ ~ Chancellor Jeremy Haefner
2. Partnership with Colorado Sikhs in tradition Langar: a Sikh expression of inclusivity through a free, communal vegetarian Indian meal to help unify diverse race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, and class identities.
3. Promotes Unity Through Community
 - a. Langar@DU is an opportunity to gather the entire community of DU together and celebrate in relaxed, fun environment after a challenging year!
 - b. The event is taking place in the middle of the University of Denver’s campus and will have lots of students and staff from the university as well as neighbors, civic leaders, and surrounding communities.
 - c. All Are Welcome!

Student Quotes

“The Langar event was something I had a tremendous time being involved in and seeing it all come together was truly special. The day itself is filled with a lot of fun and special tradition for the Sikh community, I highly encourage everyone to attend and take in all it has to offer” -Cole Guttman

“Being in this year’s class, we have had a lot of preparation and anticipation for Saturday June 4th. It is going to be a great event and I would not want to miss it! -Justin Lee

“It's been amazing planning this event for a year and I'm really excited that its becoming reality. It's going to be a special day for all the people attending and bring joy to all of us!” -Magnus Chrona

“Planning this event with the rest of my classmates and everyone involved has been such an amazing and fun experience. I can't wait for all of our hard work to come to life and watch the event create joy and connection on our campus.” -Rosie Casali

“I have a really great time with my classmates and school staff to prepare for this big event. Ready to see people bring their friends and families to join Langar!” -Charlotte Jin

“It was such an awesome experience to plan Langar at DU with this class. I am graduating this quarter, I am very happy to promote diversity and inclusivity at DU before leaving Denver” - Hangyu Xiao

“Having a student-led event is going to be a great experience. I am excited to be a part of this collaborative system with the student body at The University of Denver, and the Colorado Sikhs!” -Charlie West

“This course has allowed me to meet people I wouldn’t normally run into. Being in class has been really amazing. I’m happy we are finally getting everything together for saturday. It should be a great event!” - Max Smith
