

BA in International Studies and BA in Public Policy

INTS Major Requirements

Core (three courses)

INTS 1500 Contemporary Issues in the Global Economy

INTS 1700 Introduction to International Politics

INTS 2975 Global Issues Research Practicum

Specialization (three courses)

INTS 3000 level “Challenges” course in specialization

INTS 3000 level specialization courses (choose two)

Methods/Skills (one course)

INTS 2000 or 3000 level course from approved list

Foreign Language Proficiency (equivalent of two years)

Study Abroad

Electives, Honors Seminar or Internship (four courses)

Specialization Areas

Global Economic Affairs

Global Environmental Sustainability

Global Governance and Human Rights

Global Health & Development

International Peace & Security

Sample INTS Schedule

FSEM

INTS 1500 (or INTS 1700) (approved as SI-Society)
(can also take a 2xxx level INTS elective course without prerequisites)

Foreign Language

Common core course (AI-Society, AI-Natural, SI-Society, SI-Natural)

Public Policy

Skills-based curriculum

Enabling students to develop evidence-based solutions to today's biggest challenges

Issues oriented and interdisciplinary

Including migration, the environment, the economy, and others

Public Policy majors developed to become future leaders

Public, private, and nonprofit sectors

PPOL Major Requirements

Lower Division Core (two courses)

PPOL 1910 Hard Choices in Public Policy (offered each quarter)

PPOL 2000 Public Policy Analysis

Upper Division Core (three courses)

PPOL 3115 Economics for Public Policy

PPOL 3300 Ethics and Public Policy

PPOL 3230 Analytical & Critical Skills

Specialization (three courses)

Sustainability, U.S. Domestic Policy, U.S. Foreign Policy, Law & Policy, Custom

Electives, Honors Seminar, or Internship (four courses)

Sample PPOL Schedule

FSEM

PPOL 1910 (approved as SI-Society)

Foreign Language

Common core course (AI-Society, AI-Natural, SI-Society, SI-Natural)

More Information

<https://du.digication.com/korbel-undergraduate-1>

THANK YOU

