- B. The Policy and these Procedures are intended to comply with the requirements of Title IX, the Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act ("Clery Act"), as amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 ("VAWA"), the laws of the State of Colorado with respect to its application to sexual misconduct, and other applicable laws and regulations.
- C. The University has designated the Associate Vice Chancellor for Equal Opportunity & Title IX/Title IX Coordinator ("AVC for EOIX") to coordinate the University's compliance with all federal, state, and local laws within the scope of the Policy.² The University's Title IX Coordinator is:

 - 1. The Title IX Prohibited Conduct is alleged to have been perpetrated against a person in the United States;
 - 2. The Title IX Prohibited Conduct is alleged to have taken place within the University's Education Program or Activity; and

 - 1. Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX Comprehensive Discrimination and Harassment Procedures
 - 2. Honor Code with the Student Rights & Responsibilities Policies and Procedures
- C. These Procedures supersede any conflicting information in any other University policy with respect to the procedures applicable to alleged Title IX Prohibited Conduct. The University may apply a different policy or procedures under certain circumstances where required by a change in the law, regulation, or federal agency guidance.
- D. The AVC for EOIX and the Title IX Coordinator, in their sole discretion, shall determine whether these Procedures or the Comprehensive Discrimination and Harassment Procedures, or both, apply to the Title IX Prohibited Conduct.
- E. All members of the University of Denver community, including Students, Employees, and Third Parties, are subject to these Procedures as described in Section II.E of the Policy.
- F. Third Parties may initiate a report or, consistent with Section IV of these Procedures, a Complaint that a member of the University community engaged in Title IX Prohibited Conduct committed against them by members of the University community, but Third Parties alleged to have themselves engaged in Prohibited Conduct are limited in their rights pursuant to these Procedures at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator. IV. Reporting

- A. Reporting concerns of potential Title IX Prohibited Conduct is critical to the University's ability to respond to potential Title IX Prohibited Conduct, to provide appropriate supports and resources to individuals who may have been impacted, and to monitor campus trends and provide appropriate training and prevention education to the University community. Individuals have several reporting options within and outside the University. Individuals may pursue these options simultaneously or any one of them separately. The University has resources to support a Complainant regardless of the course of action chosen.
- B. At any time, any person may report Title IX Prohibited Conduct (whether or not the person reporting is the person alleged to have experienced the conduct), in person, by mail, by telephone, by electronic mail or other electronic submission to the Title IX Coordinator, or by any other means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the person's verbal or written report.
- C. The University encourages Complainants to report incidents of Title IX Prohibited Conduct directly to the Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX by contacting the Title IX Coordinator:

- E. Upon receiving a report of alleged Title IX Prohibited Conduct, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly:
1. Inform the Complainant in writing of their right to simultaneously or subsequently file a Formal Complaint pursuant to these Procedures and the process for doing so;
 2. Contact the Complainant to discuss the availability of Supportive Measures with or without the filing of a Formal Complaint;
 3. Consider the Complainant's wishes with respect to Supportive Measures; and
 4. Offer Supportive Measures as provided in Section V below.
- F. In order to facilitate the University's ability to respond to Title IX Prohibited Conduct and to meet the University's obligations under state and federal law, the University requires employees who have witnessed, have been informed of, or may otherwise have information that reasonably may constitute Prohibited Conduct to report such conduct to the University, unless such employees qualify as Confidential Employees as defined in the University's Reporting by University Employees on Disclosures Relating to the University's Discrimination and Harassment Policy. Responsible Employees will refer all reports of Title IX Protected Conduct to the Title IX Coordinator to facilitate resolution pursuant to these Procedures. If a Responsible Employee fails to timely report incidents of alleged Prohibited Conduct to the Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX, that employee may be referred to the Division of Human Resources & Inclusive Community or to the Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs, as applicable, for appropriate corrective action. Only a report made to EOIX (either directly or from a Responsible Employee) or an individual identified in Section IV triggers the University's obligation to respond to an allegation of Title IX Prohibited Conduct.
- G. The Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX is not a confidential resource. For any report of Title IX Prohibited Conduct, the University will endeavor to respect and safeguard the privacy interests of all individuals involved balanced with the need for a careful assessment of the allegation and any necessary steps to eliminate the conduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects.

Information related to a report under these Procedures may be shared with those University Employees who have a "need to know" in order to offer Supportive Measures or assist in the active response, review, investigation, or resolution of the report. Information regarding a report by a Student or Employee will not be shared with the Complainant's or Respondent's parents, guardians, or any Third Party unless permissible for a Student under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). The University will not release information, including the identity of the parties, from proceedings under the Procedures except as required or permitted by law or University policy.

Confidentiality means that a client or patient (including Students, staff, and faculty) sharing information with a designated campus or community professional can expect that the professional will only disclose such information with the individual's express written permission, unless there is a continuing threat of serious harm to the patient/client or to others, or there is a legal obligation to reveal such information (e.g. where there is suspected abuse or neglect of a minor). An individual can seek confidential assistance and support by speaking with specially designated confidential resources. The University has identified on the EOIX website where Students may access the services of Confidential Employees, including the University's Health & Counseling Center (HCC) and Center for Advocacy, Prevention, and Empowerment (CAPE).

H. Anonymous Reporting

1. Any individual other than a Responsible Employee can make a report without disclosing one's own name, identifying the Respondent, or requesting any action.
2. The University will review all anonymous reports, and where there is sufficient information, include applicable information in Clery Act reporting.
3. Depending on the level of information available about the incident or the individuals involved, the University may not be able to fully respond or take further action in response to an anonymous report.

- I. The University encourages Complainants to contact local law enforcement to report incidents of Title IX Prohibited Conduct that may also be crimes under state or federal criminal statutes. The University will assist a Complainant, at the Complainant's request, in contacting local law enforcement and will cooperate with law enforcement agencies if a Complainant decides to pursue the criminal process. The University encourages all individuals to seek assistance from a medical provider, as needed, and/or law enforcement immediately after an incident of Title IX Prohibited Conduct, whether or not the individual plans to pursue criminal action. This facilitates preservation of evidence and a timely response by law enforcement and/or the University.

The University's definitions, burden of proof, and procedures differ from federal and state criminal law. The University is not bound by law enforcement's determination whether or not to prosecute a Respondent nor the outcome of any criminal prosecution. The University will independently determine under these Procedures whether Title IX Prohibited Conduct has occurred. The University may undertake any process under these Procedures prior to, simultaneously with, or following civil or criminal proceedings.

- J. After receiving a report, Title IX Coordinator may conduct an initial assessment of the reported information to determine whether the nature or circumstances of the report are within the scope of these Procedures. If the Title IX Coordinator determines that the reported information does not fall within the scope of these Procedures, the Title IX Coordinator will, as appropriate, process the report under other appropriate procedures, refer to the matter to an appropriate administrator, provide the Complainant with resources, and/or close the matter.

- K. In addition to the emergency removal and administrative leave processes, if a report of Title IX Prohibited Conduct discloses a serious and immediate threat to the University community, the University's Department of Campus Safety will determine whether the Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act ("the Clery Act") requires that the University issue a timely notification to protect the health or safety of the community. The notification will not include the Complainant's name. Pursuant to the Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA"), the Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX will provide information regarding reported criminal incidents to the University's Clery and Compliance Coordinator for inclusion in the Daily Crime Log and in the University's Annual Security Report. The University may also share aggregate data about reports, Outcomes, and/or Disciplinary Action without including personally identifiable information.

L. Timing of a Report

1. Although there is no time limit on reporting Title IX Prohibited Conduct, the University encourages Complainants and other individuals to promptly report allegations of Title IX Prohibited Conduct as soon as reasonably possible after the event(s) occurred. Delays in reporting can prevent the University from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the allegations and may result in a dismissal of a Formal Complaint.
2. If the Respondent is no longer a Student or Employee, the University may not be able to impose Outcomes and/or Disciplinary Action against the Respondent. Nevertheless, the University will still seek to provide Supportive Measures for a Complainant and take steps to end the Title IX Prohibited Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects.
3. The University also encourages the reporting of conduct occurring off University Premises, including online or electronic conduct, that occurred in the context of employment or an Education Program or Activity of the University, or that has continuing adverse effects in employment or an Education Program or Activity, so that the University may address such conduct under these Procedures or other University policies and procedures, as applicable.

M. Amnesty for Personal Use of Drugs or Alcohol

1. The University recognizes that Students may be reluctant to seek assistance from a University official or emergency services after experiencing Prohibited Conduct or may be reluctant to seek assistance for themselves or others who may have experienced Title IX Prohibited Conduct because they fear being held responsible under the University Honor Code for alcohol or drug violations related to the incident.
2. The University generally will not initiate a formal conduct process under the Honor Code if a Student makes a good faith report to a University official, contacts emergency services or participates as a Party or Witness in any resolution process related to Title IX Prohibited Conduct, for personal consumption of alcohol or other drugs that would otherwise be a violation of the Honor Code, provided the misconduct did not endanger the health or safety of others. However, the University does not extend this amnesty to (1) the distribution or sale of alcohol or other drugs; or (2) the provision of alcohol or other drugs to another individual for the purposes of inducing incapacitation as defined in the Policy.

3. When granting amnesty for the personal use of drugs or alcohol, the University may, however, refer the Student for an evaluation related to their health status or substance use; engage with the Student in an assessment or educational discussion; or pursue other non-disciplinary options regarding alcohol or other drug use.
4. The University also provides the Medical Amnesty Process as set forth in the Honor Code.

V. Supportive Measures

- A. Supportive Measures are available regardless of whether the matter is reported to the University for purposes of initiating any formal grievance proceeding and before, after, and regardless of whether a Formal Complaint is filed. A Complainant who requests Supportive Measures retains the right to file a Formal Complaint either at the time the Supportive Measure is requested or at a later date.
- B. Supportive Measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University's Education Program or Activity without unreasonably burdening the other Party.
- C. Supportive Measures are not punitive in nature and are designed to protect the safety of all Parties or the University's educational environment. Supportive Measures may include, but are not limited to:
 1. Assistance in seeking academic assistance, including modified class schedules (including transfer to another section), permission to withdraw from and/or retake a class or attend a class via alternative means and extension of assignment deadlines or other course-related adjustments
 2. Assistance in modifying University employment arrangements, including changes in work schedules, job assignments, work locations, and/or assigned parking
 3. Campus escort services and safety planning through Campus Safety.
 4. Mutual restrictions on contact between the Parties
 5. Assistance in requesting leaves of absence
 6. Modifications to University housing arrangements, including immediate temporary relocation to alternative living quarters and/or permanent reassignment of University housing
 7. Assistance in arranging a meeting with law enforcement to discuss reporting or safety planning
 8. Assistance in modifying assigned parking
 9. Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus
 10. Any other mechanism which can be tailored to the involved individuals to achieve the goals of these Procedures.

- D. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of Supportive Measures.
- E. Supportive Measures may also be requested by and made available to Respondents, Witnesses, and other impacted members of the University community. The Title IX Coordinator will serve as the point of contact for any individual requesting Supportive Measures.
- F. Supportive Measures do not include Disciplinary Actions or Outcomes. The University shall not impose Disciplinary Actions or Outcomes on a Respondent unless and until after the Formal Resolution Process, as detailed in Section IX below, is completed.
- G. The University will maintain as confidential any Supportive Measures provided to the Complainant or Respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the University to provide the Supportive Measures.

VI. Emergency Removal/Administrative Leave/Trespass

- A. Emergency Removal- The University may remove a Respondent from its Education Program or Activity on an emergency basis if the University:
 - 1. Undertakes an individualized safety and risk analysis;
 - 2. Determines that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of the Parties or any other Student or other individual arising from the allegations of Prohibited Conduct justifies removal; and
 - 3. Provides the Respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal.

In making the individual safety and risk analysis, the University will consider the following risk factors:

- 1. Whether the Respondent has prior arrests, is the subject of prior reports and/or complaints related to any form of Prohibited Conduct, or has any history of violent behavior
- 2. Whether the Respondent has a history of failing to comply with any University No Contact Order, other University protective measures, and/or any judicial protective order
- 3. Whether Respondent has threatened to commit violence or any form of Prohibited Conduct
- 4. Whether the Prohibited Conduct involved multiple Respondents
- 5. Whether the Prohibited Conduct involved physical violence. Physical violence means exerting control over another person through the use of physical force. Examples of physical violence including hitting, punching, slapping, kicking, restraining, strangling, and brandishing or using any weapon

6. Whether the report reveals a pattern of Prohibited Conduct (e.g., by the Respondent, by a particular group or organization, around a particular recurring event or activity, or at a particular location)
 7. Whether the Prohibited Conduct was facilitated through the use of “date-rape” or similar drugs or intoxicants
 8. Whether the Complainant is (or was at the time of the Prohibited Conduct) a minor (under 18); and
 9. Whether any other aggravating circumstances or signs of predatory behavior are present.
- B. Administrative Leave: The University may place a non-student Employee Respondent on administrative leave during the pendency of the Formal Resolution Process set forth in Section IX below. The University will not place a non-student Employee Respondent alleged to have committed Title IX Prohibited Conduct on administrative leave due solely to the Title IX Prohibited Conduct allegations that constitute Title IX Prohibited Conduct unless and until a Formal Complaint has been filed with the University. The University, in its discretion and based on the totality of the circumstances, will determine whether any administrative leave imposed is to be imposed with or without pay or benefits.
- C. Trespass Notices: The University may trespass Third Parties who have been alleged to have engaged in Title IX Prohibited Conduct without any rights to the resolution processes described in these Procedures. Members of the University community who host Third Parties may be held accountable for the misconduct of their Third Parties pursuant to applicable University policies.

VII. Bias, Training, and Presumptions

- A. Any individual designated as a Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, Hearing Officer, Decision-Maker for Disciplinary Action, Outcome Council Member, Appellate Officer, or person designated to facilitate an Informal Resolution Process must not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or an individual Complainant or Respondent.
1. The University will provide training to the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Investigators, Hearing Officers, Decision-Makers for Disciplinary Action, Outcome Council Members, Appellate Officers, and any person who facilitates the Informal Resolution Process. The University will make the training materials used publicly available on the Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX website.
 2. The University will provide training to Hearing Officers on the following:
 - a) How to conduct a hearing;

The University may extend these timeframes for good cause with Written Notice to the Parties of the delay or extension and the reason for such delay or extension. Good cause may include considerations such as the absence of a Party, a Party's advisor, or a Witness; concurrent law enforcement activity; or the need for language assistance or accommodation of disabilities.

VIII. Informal Resolution Process

- A. Informal Resolution

Informal Resolution is an alternative resolution process that does not include a full investigation or hearing. Informal Resolution seeks to identify and meet the needs of the Parties, and seek to address and repair the harm (to the extent possible) experienced by the Complainant and/or the University community.
- B. Availability of Informal Resolution Process
 - 1. The University will not require that the Parties participate in the Informal Resolution Process.
 - 2. After a Formal Complaint is filed, the Title IX Coordinator may offer the Informal Resolution Process to the Parties in certain circumstances. The Title IX Coordinator reserves the right to determine whether the Informal Resolution Process is appropriate in a specific case.
 - a) The Informal Resolution Process is only available after a Formal Complaint is filed and only if all Parties voluntarily consent, in writing, to the Informal Resolution Process.

- i. However, any time prior to agreeing to a resolution, any Party has the right to withdraw from the Informal Resolution Process and resume the Formal Resolution Process described in Section IX below.
 - b) The Informal Resolution Process is not available to resolve allegations of Title IX Prohibited Conduct in which the Complainant is a Student of the University and the Respondent is an Employee of the University.
- 3. If the Parties voluntarily consent, the University may implement the Informal Resolution Process any time prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility for Title IX Prohibited Conduct.

C. Notice of Availability of Informal Resolution Process

- 1. If the Informal Resolution Process is available, the Title IX Coordinator will issue Written Notice to the Parties disclosing:
 - a) The nature of the allegations in the Formal Complaint;
 - b) The requirements of the Informal Resolution Process, including the circumstances under which the process precludes the Parties from resuming a Formal Complaint arising from the same allegations;
 - c) The Informal Resolution process is only available if the Parties voluntarily consent in writing. If the Parties voluntarily consent, the University may initiate an Informal Resolution process any time prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility;
 - d) That either Party may withdraw from the Informal Resolution process and may initiate or resume the Formal Resolution process;
 - e) Any consequences resulting from participating in the Informal Resolution Process, including the records that will be maintained or could be shared;
 - f) That either Party may withdraw from the Informal Resolution Process prior to agreeing to an Informal Resolution agreement and resume the Formal Resolution process;
 - g) The potential terms that may be requested or offered in an Informal Resolution agreement, including but not limited to:
 - i. Restrictions on contact;
 - ii. Restrictions on the Respondent's participation in one or more of the University's programs or activities or attendance at specific events; and/or
 - iii. Restrictions that the University could have imposed as Remedies. Outcomes, or Disciplinary Action had EOIX determined at the conclusion of the Formal Resolution Process that Respondent was responsible for Prohibited Conduct;
 - iv. That an Informal Resolution Agreement is binding only on the Parties.

D. Facilitator of Informal Resolution

The facilitator for the Informal Resolution will:

- 1. not be the same person as the Investigator or Decisionmaker in the Formal Resolution process;

2. be free from conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or an individual Complainant or Respondent; and
3. be trained by the University as set forth in Section XV below.

E. Conclusion and Finality of Informal Resolution Process

At any time prior to executing an Informal Resolution Agreement, the Parties have the right to withdraw from the Informal Resolution process and resume the Formal Resolution process. The Title IX Coordinator has the discretion to terminate an Informal Resolution process if, at any time, the Title IX Coordinator determines that Informal Resolution is not appropriate to resolve a Complaint or to stop Prohibited Conduct, remedy its impact, or prevent its recurrence.

After the Parties have engaged in an Informal Resolution Process, reached a resolution both Parties have signed an Informal Resolution agreement and the Title IX Coordinator has accepted the result of that process, the resolution is binding, and the Parties generally are precluded from resuming or restarting the Formal Resolution Process related to the Formal Complaint. No Party can appeal a binding resolution reached through the Informal Resolution process. However, a Party's failure to complete the agreed terms as set forth in of an Informal Resolution may result in the Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX commencing or resuming a formal investigation and/or referral to the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities or the Division of Human Resources & Inclusive Community for appropriate action.

1. For Student Respondents

Informal Resolution will not result in Outcomes through the Outcome Council, but rather terms in an Informal Resolution agreement may include education, coaching, mentoring, voluntary withdrawal, or other action steps that the Title IX Coordinator deems appropriate, in consultation with other University administrators as needed. For Informal Resolutions involving Students, the University division, department, unit, or office responsible for taking action pursuant to the Informal Resolution must inform EOIX that such action has been taken.

2. For Employee Respondents

Informal Resolutions may result in mandatory requirements in the form of education, coaching, mentoring, or other action steps that the Title IX Coordinator deems appropriate, in consultation with the Employee's supervisor, the Division of Human Resources & Inclusive Community, and other University administrators as needed. For Informal Resolutions involving mandatory requirements for University Employees, the Employee or the Employee's supervisor, as applicable, must inform EOIX the Employee or the supervisor has completed the required action.

F. Timeframe

The University will make a good faith effort to complete the Informal Resolution Process within an average of ninety (90) Business Days, without jeopardizing the rights of a Party.

IX. Formal Resolution Process

A. Formal Complaint

1. A Complainant has the option to file a Formal Complaint against a Respondent alleging Title IX Prohibited Conduct and requesting that the University investigate those allegations. To file a Formal Complaint, the Complainant should contact the Title IX Coordinator and sign and submit the University's Formal Complaint form online, in person, or by email by contacting the Title IX Coordinator as follows:

Michael D. Todd, JD
Associate Vice Chancellor for Equal Opportunity & Title IX Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX/ Title IX Coordinator
Driscoll Center South, Suite 30
2050 E. Evans Avenue
Denver CO 80208
\(303\) 871-7016

Title IX Online Report Form

2. When a Complainant does not wish to file a Formal Complaint on their own behalf, the Title IX Coordinator may, in their discretion, prepare and file a Formal Complaint by signing the Formal Complaint form. In the absence of a Complaint filed by a Complainant, or when the Complainant withdraws any or all of the allegations in a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will consider whether to initiate a Formal Complaint alleging Title IX Prohibited Conduct after considering, at a minimum:
 - a) The Complainant's request not to proceed with initiation of a Formal Complaint;
 - b) The Complainant's reasonable safety concerns regarding initiation of a Formal Complaint;
 - c) The risk that additional Title IX Prohibited Conduct would occur if a Formal Complaint is not initiated;
 - d) The age and relationship of the Parties, including whether the Respondent is an Employee;
 - e) The scope of the alleged Title IX Prohibited Conduct, including information suggesting a pattern of Title IX Prohibited Conduct, ongoing Title IX Prohibited Conduct or Title IX Prohibited Conduct alleged to have impacted multiple individuals;
 - f) The availability of evidence to assist a decisionmaker in determining whether Title IX Prohibited Conduct occurred; and
 - g) Whether the University could end the alleged Title IX Prohibited Conduct and prevent its recurrence without initiating a formal resolution process.

When the Title IX Coordinator signs a Formal Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator is not the Complainant or otherwise a Party. While the Complainant may choose to not participate in the grievance process initiated by the Title IX Coordinator's signing of a Formal Complaint, the Complainant will still be treated as a Party entitled to inspect and review evidence and to receive all notices, including the notice of allegations, the notice of hearing, and the notice of Outcome. At no time will the University coerce or retaliate against a Complainant in order to convince the Complainant to participate in the grievance process.

B. Dismissal of a Formal Complaint

1. The Title IX Coordinator will dismiss a Formal Complaint, and the University shall not conduct any investigation under these Procedures, if:
 - a) The conduct alleged in the Formal Complaint would not constitute Title IX Prohibited Conduct as defined by the Policy even if proved; or
 - b) The conduct alleged in the Formal Complaint did not occur within the Scope and Jurisdiction of these Procedures, as described in Section II above.
 - c) The Title IX Coordinator, in their discretion, may dismiss a Formal Complaint, or any allegations therein, at any time during the investigation or hearing, if:
 - a. The Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that the Complainant would like to withdraw the Formal Complaint or any allegations therein; and/or
 - b. The Respondent is not enrolled or employed by the University; and/or
 - c. Specific circumstances prevent the University from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the Formal Complaint or allegations therein.
2. The dismissal of a Formal Complaint under Section IX of these Procedures does not preclude the University from conducting an investigation or taking action under other applicable University policies and procedures with regard to conduct that is not subject to these Procedures.
3. Upon dismissal of the Formal Complaint or any allegations therein, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly send Written Notice of the dismissal and the reasons for the dismissal simultaneously to the Parties.
4. Either Party may appeal the decision to dismiss a Formal Complaint.

C. Consolidation

1. The Title IX Coordinator may consolidate Formal Complaints as to allegations of Title IX Prohibited Conduct where the allegations arise out of the same facts or circumstances.
2. The Title IX Coordinator may, in consultation with other University administrators, elect to consolidate the investigation of Formal Complaints as to allegations of Title IX Prohibited Conduct with complaints of violations of other University policies where the allegations arise out of the same facts or circumstances.
 - a) For purposes of such consolidation, the Investigator may conduct a single investigation.
 - b) Following the completion of the investigation, the University may decide, in its sole discretion, whether to proceed with all allegations under these Procedures or whether to proceed with the allegations related to violations of other University policies under the applicable procedures (e.g., the Honor Code).

3. The Title IX Coordinator may also consolidate a single Complainant or multiple Complainants, a single Respondent or multiple Respondents.
4. If Formal Complaints involving multiple Complainants and/or multiple Respondents are consolidated, each Party will have access to all of the information being considered, including information provided by all involved Complainants, all involved Respondents, and all involved Witnesses.
5. The decision to consolidate is not subject to appeal.

D. Timeframe for Conclusion

1. The University will make a good faith effort to complete the Formal Resolution Process, including the hearing but excluding appeals, within an average of ninety (90) Business Days, without jeopardizing the rights of a Party.
2. The timeframe for resolution will depend on the availability of Witnesses, University breaks or vacations, complexities of a case, including the number of Witnesses and volume of information provided by the Parties, as well as other considerations.
3. The University will strive to complete the process in a timely manner by balancing principles of thoroughness and fundamental fairness with promptness. However, the University's failure to meet the timeframes specified herein, or failure to provide notice of the extension of these timeframes, shall not be grounds for dismissing any matter and shall not be the basis of an appeal of any matter; nor shall any such failure limit the University's ability to complete the Formal Resolution Process, impose Outcomes, enact Disciplinary Actions, or limit the University's ability take any other required administrative action under these Procedures.
4. The University will provide regular updates to the Parties of the status of the Formal Resolution Process.

E. Written Notice

1. Upon receipt of a Formal Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will issue the Written Notice of allegations to the Respondent and Complainant, if known.
2. The Written Notice will be provided to each Party with sufficient time to prepare a response before any initial interview.
3. The Written Notice will include the following:
 - a) A description of the University's Title IX Procedures, including the Informal Resolution Process;
 - b) A description of the allegations including sufficient details such as:
 - i. The identities of the Parties involved in the incident;
 - ii. The alleged conduct constituting Title IX Prohibited Conduct;
 - iii. The date and location of the alleged incident;
 - c) A statement that the Respondent is presumed not responsible for alleged conduct unless and until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the Formal Resolution Process set forth in Section IX below.
 - d) The identity of the assigned Investigator(s) and information on how the Parties may challenge the participation by the Investigator(s) on the basis of bias or conflict of interest;
 - e) A statement that the Parties have the right to an advisor of their choice;

- f) A statement that the Parties have the right to inspect and review directly related evidence;
 - g) A statement instructing the Parties to preserve any potentially relevant evidence in any format;
 - h) A statement that Retaliation is prohibited; and
 - i) For Students, a statement that the Honor Code includes prohibitions on intentionally giving false or misleading information to a University official.
 - 4. If, during the course of an investigation, the University decides to investigate additional allegations about the Complainant or Respondent relating to the same facts or circumstances, but that were not included in the earlier written notice, the University will provide notice of the additional allegations to the Parties whose identities are known.
- F. Advisors and Support Persons
- 1. Throughout the Title IX process, each Party has the right to have one (1) advisor of their choice and one (1) support person of their choice. A Party may have the same advisor and support person throughout the process or may choose to have a different advisor or support person at various stages of the process, such as during interviews, meetings with the Title IX Coordinator, or the hearing.
 - 2. Although the University does not limit a Party's choice of advisor or support person, the University will communicate with a Party directly and not through an advisor or support person.
 - 3. The University establishes the following restrictions on the extent to which an advisor or support person may participate in the process, and these restrictions apply equally to Complainants and Respondents.
 - a) Advisors and support persons may not:
 - i. Present information on behalf of the Party;
 - ii. Submit documents on behalf of the Party;
 - iii. Discuss any matter directly with University administrators or Investigator in the absence of the Party.
 - b) Except for the role of an advisor as specifically set forth in Section IX below, advisors and support persons may not speak on behalf of the Party or otherwise actively participate in any proceeding.
 - c) The Office will not consider or accept submissions or information from an advisor or support person. If an advisor or support person attempts to present information or submit documents on behalf of any Party, the Office will notify the Party and provide the Party a reasonable amount of time to submit the information or documents directly, however the Office will not extend procedural deadlines for this reason. If the Party elects not to submit the information or documents, such information will not be considered in the investigation or any resolution.
 - d) The University may exclude advisors and support persons who act in a manner contrary to these limitations or otherwise disrupt any proceeding from that proceeding and/or future proceedings. This includes excluding an advisor and/or support person from the Hearing if they violate standards of decorum.

4. If a Party does not have an advisor present during the hearing, the University will appoint an advisor of its choice for the Party for the sole purpose of conducting cross-examination.
5. Although the advisor may be, but need not be, an attorney, their participation in the process is subject to the limitations described herein.
6. The advisor may be present at any proceedings that are part of the Formal Resolution Process. If a Party wishes to have an advisor present at a proceeding, the University will work within reason to schedule the proceeding so the advisor may attend, without unreasonably delaying the progress of the Formal Resolution Process. The advisor may consult directly with the Party whom they are advising in a manner that does not disrupt or delay the proceeding.

G. Investigation

1. The University will investigate the allegations in a Formal Complaint.
2. The University, and not the Complainant or the Respondent, has the burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding responsibility.
3. The Investigator may gather evidence by:
 - a) Collecting relevant documents and other information;
 - b) Interviewing the Parties and Witnesses; and/or
 - c) Receiving documents, Witness lists, requests to gather documentation or other information from the Complainant, Respondent, Witnesses, or Third Parties.
4. The University will not restrict the ability of either Party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence.
5. The University encourages Parties to raise all issues or allegations that may arise out of the same facts or circumstances at the outset of the investigation.
6. The University cannot access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use a Party's records that are made or maintained by a health care professional acting in their professional capacity, and which are made or maintained in connection with the provision of treatment to the Party, unless the University obtains that Party's voluntary written consent to do so for the resolution process.
7. During the investigation, each Party has an equal opportunity to present Witnesses who have relevant information, including fact and expert witnesses, and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence to the Investigator, such as documents, communications, photographs, and other evidence, and suggest questions to be posed to the other Party or Witness.
8. The Investigator will provide Written Notice of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of any investigative interview or other meeting(s) to any Party whose participation is invited or expected with sufficient time for the Party to prepare to participate.
9. The Investigator will record, with permission of the Party or Witness, and transcribe (or arrange for transcription of) all interviews. For Parties and Witnesses who elect not to have their interview recorded, the Investigator will prepare a statement of the interview. Each Party or Witness will be given the opportunity to review the interview statements of their own interview and correct spelling/grammar and factual errors and provide clarification if needed by the deadline designated by the Investigator.

10. Prior to conclusion of the investigation, the Investigator will make available to each Party and to each Party's advisor, if any, via the University's chosen cloud storage platform all evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the Formal Complaint whether or not the University intends to rely on such evidence in reaching a determination regarding responsibility. The Parties and each Party's advisor may not download, photograph, copy or otherwise duplicate, share or transmit the evidence provided by the Investigator.
 - a) Each Party may submit a written response, which the Investigator will consider prior to conclusion of the investigation and completion of the investigative report.
 - b) The written response, if any, must be submitted to the Investigator by the deadline designated by the Investigator, which will be at least ten (10) Business Days after the Investigator makes the evidence available to the Party, unless the deadline is extended for good cause.
 - c) If the Investigator receives information from a Party in response to the evidence that warrants further substantive investigation or review, the Investigator, in consultation with the Title IX Coordinator, has the discretion to extend the investigation. If the Investigator extends the investigation, the Investigator will notify the parties in writing, issue the additional evidence, and provide the Parties access to such evidence for review and comment for ten (10) Business Days.
11. The Investigator will create an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence.
 - a) The Investigator must conduct an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence, including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.
 - b) Any information not provided to the Investigator prior to the final investigative report will not be allowed during the hearing unless the Party offering the evidence can clearly demonstrate that such information was not reasonably available to the Parties at the time of the investigation through the exercise of reasonable diligence or that the evidence has significant relevance to a material fact at issue in the investigation.
 - c) If, after the final investigative report is issued, a Party provides or identifies evidence that they did not previously provide or identify despite that evidence being reasonably available to them during the investigation process, the Hearing Officer may, at their discretion, draw a negative inference from the Party's delay in providing or identifying the evidence.
12. At least ten (10) Business Days prior to the scheduled hearing, the Title IX Coordinator will make available via the University's chosen cloud storage platform to each Party and to each Party's advisor, if any, the investigative report.
 - a) Each Party may submit a written response, which the Title IX Coordinator will submit to the Hearing Officer for consideration at the hearing.
 - b) The written response, if any, must be submitted to the Title IX Coordinator by the deadline designated by the Title IX Coordinator, unless the deadline is extended for good cause. The written response, if any, will be provided to the Parties prior to the hearing.

13. Before and after the investigative report is issued but no later than five (5) Business Days before scheduled hearing, either Party may request an Informal Resolution Process subject to the provisions set forth in Section VIII.

- g) Both Parties must be accompanied by an advisor to the hearing. If a Party does not have an advisor for the hearing, the University will provide without fee or charge to that Party an advisor of the University's choice for that Party.
 - h) Each Party's advisor must conduct any cross-examination of the other Party and any Witnesses. Apart from conducting cross-examination, the Parties' advisors do not have a speaking role at the hearing; an advisor's participation is limited to conferring with the Party at intervals set by the Hearing Officer.
 - i) The University has the authority to establish standards of decorum for the hearing that apply equally to each Party, Witness or advisor. The standards of decorum may, among other things, address the process for cross-examination, including rules and practices to facilitate cross-examination that is relevant, respectful, and not abusive. The Office of Equal Opportunity & Title IX will maintain the standards of decorum and provide the standards of decorum to the parties with the Notice of Hearing.
2. Standard of Evidence

 - ii. Information protected under a privilege recognized by federal or state law, or evidence provided to a confidential employee, unless the person to whom such privilege or confidentiality is owed has waived the privilege or confidentiality.
 - e) The Hearing Officer cannot draw an inference about the determination regarding responsibility based solely on a Party's or Witness's absence from the hearing or refusal to answer cross-examination or other questions. However, the Hearing Officer may choose to place less or no weight upon statements by a Party or Witness who refuses to respond to such questions.

- f) The Hearing Officer will conduct an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence, including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.
 - i. Any information not provided to the Investigator prior to the final investigative report will not be allowed during the hearing unless the Party offering the evidence can clearly demonstrate that such information was not reasonably available to the Party through the exercise of reasonable diligence at the time of the investigation or that the evidence has significant relevance to a material fact at issue in the investigation.
 - ii. If, after the final investigative report is issued, a Party provides or identifies evidence that they did not previously provide or identify despite that evidence being reasonably available to them during the investigation process, the Hearing Officer may, at their discretion, draw a negative inference from the Party's delay in providing or identifying the evidence.
- 4. Party Statements and Witness Examination
 - a) Each Party will have an equal amount of time in which to make a statement of their case.
 - b) The Hearing Officer may ask questions of any Party or Witness.
 - c) The Hearing Officer will allow each Party's advisor to cross-examine the other Party and all Witnesses by asking all relevant questions and follow up questions, including those challenging credibility.

 - f) After the Party's advisors have completed their cross-examination, the Hearing Officer will again have an opportunity to ask any additional questions or any Party or Witness.
 - g) Each Party will have an equal amount of time in which to make a closing statement.

I. Written Determination

J. Remedies/Outcomes/Disciplinary Actions

1. Remedies are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the University's Education Program or Activity. Remedies may be disciplinary or punitive. Remedies may eliminate a hostile environment for the Complainant and/or provide safety protections for the Complainant or the University Community. Remedies may include arrangements that were provided as Supportive Measures during the investigation.
