Explore leadership inspired by animations through feminist and critical race studies lenses.

What does One Piece, Steven Universe, Avatar the Last Airbender, and Rugrats have in common???

- 1) They are all great animations that unite youth and adult alike!!
- 2) They have lessons and characters who inspire the very leaders that we are!

Come learn with Dr. Indhira 'Indy' Udofia as they allow animated shows, such as Western cartoons, Animes, and other genres of animated content help us reflect and reimagine what leadership looks like underneath feminist, critical race and ethnic studies, and decolonial lenses!
