Requirements for “walking” in spring ceremony (June):

- You must have filed for graduation within the required time frame.
- You must be a graduation candidate for the subsequent summer quarter.
- You must be within 5 credit hours of completing your degree, including resolving any incomplete grades.
- You must be registered for your final requirements in the summer interterm or in summer quarter.
- You must have completed all non-course degree requirements (e.g., comprehensive examination, practicum, major research paper) two weeks prior to the end of spring quarter. Please note that when a student is registered for an internship course, the internship is considered to be a course-related degree requirement, and the candidate must be within five-credit hours of degree completion.
- If a thesis or dissertation is required for the degree, you must complete your defense within the first six weeks of the subsequent summer quarter. The defense date must be on file with the Office of Graduate Education.
