

JAMIE GLICK, MSW, LCSW

jamieglick.lcsw@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Clinical Director

October 2011 - Present

Rite of Passage, Ridge View Youth Services - Watkins, CO

As a member of the management team, provides clinical direction and oversight to a 500 bed residential child care facility. The population consists of high risk adolescent males ages 13-20 who are either committed to the Colorado Department of Youth Corrections or who are connected with a county Department of Human Services. Provides direction and oversight of programming including evidenced based group implementation and fidelity, unit based groups, crisis management, suicide precaution and monitoring, intern program, therapy and psychiatric services, and milieu interventions.

Adjunct Faculty

January 2012 - Present

University of Denver Master of Social Work – Denver, CO

Teach courses in Denver University MSW program. Courses taught include: Cognitive Theories, Risk and Resilience, Clinical I, Clinical II, Human Behavior in the Social Environment.

Treatment Coordinator/Clinical Supervisor

March 2007 - October 2011

Rite of Passage, Canyon State Academy – Queen Creek, AZ

As a member of the management team, provided clinical direction and oversight to a 250 bed residential placement and a 48 bed crisis shelter program. The population consisted of high risk adolescent males ages 12-18. Provided clinical direction and oversight of programming including evidenced based group implementation and fidelity, unit based groups, crisis management, suicide precaution and monitoring, intern program, therapy and psychiatric services, and milieu interventions. Also, provided clinical oversight of crisis shelter which included crisis stabilization and permanency planning.

Adjunct Faculty

January 2011 – May 2011

Arizona State University – Phoenix, AZ

Taught courses in Arizona State University MSW program. Courses taught include: Cognitive Interventions for Children and Adolescents.

Private Practice Therapist

July 2008 – June 2011

Mesa, AZ

Provided psychotherapy as part of a private practice team. Contracted with insurance companies and employee assistance programs. Specialized in working with male clients dealing with issues such as anxiety, depression, addictions, family issues, etc. Also, provided family and couples therapy.

Respite Program Coordinator
East Valley Child Crisis Center – Mesa, AZ

August 2002 – March 2007

Coordinated a respite program for children ages 4-11 involved in the public mental health system. The respite program provided short term breaks to families of high needs children. The program provided programming to up to 24 children at a time.

In-Home Child and Family Therapist
Southwest Human Development – Phoenix, AZ

March 2006 – June 2007

Provided in-home family therapy to families involved in the social service system. Services were provided as part of a Family Preservation and Family Reunification program. Family therapy was provided in-home in conjunction to case management services.

Therapist Intern
Center for Children’s Health and Life Development - Mesa, AZ

August 2004 – May 2005

Conducted therapy for children ages 4-11 at an outpatient behavioral health clinic. Provided age appropriate therapy interventions including play therapy, child/parent bonding, and art therapy. Also, conducted age appropriate clinical assessments.

Family Preservation/Reunification Specialist Intern- Phoenix, AZ
Southwest Human Development- Phoenix, AZ

August 2003 – May 2004

Provided in-home family therapy to families involved in the social service system as an internship experience. Services were provided as part of a Family Preservation and Family Reunification program. Family therapy was provided in-home in conjunction to case management services

EDUCATION

Master of Social Work
Arizona State University – Tempe, AZ

May 2005

Bachelor of Arts – Psychology
Bethel College – Mishawaka, IN

May 2003