

Julie L. Sheehan, L.C.S.W.

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Denver's Graduate School of Social Work

September 2010 --

Present

Faculty in the graduate program teaching courses in existential practice, cognitive approaches, and trauma therapy for students with curriculum tracks in clinical practice, community work, and organizations.

Regis University

April 2005 --

Present

Faculty in the undergraduate program for the College for Professional Studies teaching eleven different course subjects in adult education within the social-psychology department.

Proactive Counseling Services, Inc.

October 2003 --

Present

Join with teachers, doctors, mental health providers, hospitals, local justice centers, and other professionals within the community providing therapeutic services for diverse populations of individuals, couples, and families in a private practice setting.

September 2000 --

April 2003

Kaiser Permanente Mental Health Clinic/Shrine of St. Anne's School

Interned delivering therapeutic services for individuals in all life stages, as well as for couples and families. In addition to maintaining a private caseload, worked in the intensive outpatient, day-treatment program. Facilitated a variety of groups and classes. Also worked as school counselor providing direct services to students, parents, and families.

June 1998 --

January 2001

Beyond Digital Communications, Inc./Sheehan Editorial, Inc.

Co-owner and business administrator. Co-owned and operated a post-production television facility in Denver. In addition to implementing and overseeing all business and financial transactions, work also included communication consulting, story development, original music composition, and voice-overs for television, radio, and aired cable programming.

Adult Educator

July 1983 --

December 2002

Member of Woman Space/Woman Time speaker's bureau. Facilitated conferences on psycho-spiritual topics. Co-facilitated a couple's group for ten years. Leader of numerous women's conferences and college retreats for churches throughout the Denver metro area. Assisted in parent education at Littleton Hospital supporting families with children born into intensive care.

U.S. Instrument Rentals, Inc.

November 1983 --

June 1987      Worked on a national sales team in selling electronic test equipment and telecommunications equipment to government agencies, research and development firms, and aerospace corporations.

EDUCATION

Pacifica Graduate Institute
September 2012 –
Present

Current Ph.D. candidate in Depth Psychology

University of Denver
September 2000 --
June 2003

Master's Degree In Social Work.
Graduated in Highest Standing
Recipient of the Paulson Scholarship Award

Regis University
September 1996 --
May 1999

Bachelor's Degree In Communication.
Commencement Speaker
Graduated Summa Cum Laude; National Jesuit Honor's Society

Barnes Business College
January 1982 –
December 1982

Associate's Degree Equivalent