

Amy Staley

staley.amy@gmail.com

Social Work Skills and Experience

Crisis Management, Leadership Responsibilities, Client Advocacy and Clinical Interventions with Individuals, Groups, and Families; Work with families impacted by Homicide and Community Violence; Groups with children, adolescents and adults; Community-Client Relations; Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT); Strengths Based and Solutions Focused Therapy; Work in diverse multi-cultural setting; Instructor of Mental Health First Aide.

Work History

Denver University Graduate School of Social Work, Denver, CO

Adjunct Professor, March 2015 to Present

Teach Groups of Children and Adolescent Group's Course

Arapahoe Douglas Mental Health Network, Littleton, CO

Clinical Supervisor, July 2013 to Present

Supervise a multi-disciplinary team of 16 for a day psychiatric rehabilitation program for adults. Intern supervision and supervision of intern supervisors.

Intensive In Home Therapy, October 2012 to July 2013

Community-based therapy to prevent hospitalizations and out of home placement for youth.

Brief assessment and interventions with families.

The Home for Little Wanderers, Safe At Home Program, Boston, MA

In Home Therapy Clinician, June 2010 to September 2012

Community-based therapy, care coordination, advocacy and case management provided for urban youth age 5 to 22 and their families. Family systems approach to wrap around services to prevent or follow-up from out-of-home placement. Strengths based, solution focused and Trauma Informed Care. Clinically supervise interns.

Boston University School of Social Work Hoarding Project, Boston, MA

Co - Facilitator CBT Group, December 2008 to May 2009

Co-Facilitate a clinical group for individuals who identify as hoarders. Use Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) in group and home visits.

Just A Start House (Teen Living Program), Somerville, MA

Relief Shift Worker, October 2008 to September 2009

Case Manager, May 2009 to September 2009

Provide case management, milieu therapy, group therapy and crisis management for residents.

Safe Shelter of St. Vrain Valley (Domestic Violence Shelter), Longmont, CO

Victim's Advocate, June 2006 to June 2008

Perform Client Advocacy and Safety Planning through Individual and Group Sessions; Provide Case Management for Transitional Housing; Supervise intern tasks and responsibilities.

Amy Staley
staley.amy@gmail.com

Licensure

Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), Colorado

Education

Certificate in Intensive Family Therapy, June 2012

Masters of Social Work, Boston University, 2010

Trauma Certificate; Macro Minor; Denver Foundation Scholarship Recipient.

Certificate in Animals and Human Health, University of Denver, 2007

Bachelors of Social Work, Colorado State University, 2006

Field Education Experience

Louis D. Brown Peace Institute

Clinical Intern, September 2009 to May 2010

Provide clinical, case management and advocacy in non-traditional setting with children and families impacted by Homicide through home and office visits. Conduct case consultation with collateral agencies. Co-facilitate a self-care group for survivors. Plan and coordinate multi-agency meetings to create beginning stages of a protocol for after a homicide.

Just A Start House (Teen Living Program)

Case Manager, September 2008 to May 2009

Case Management in areas of Mental Health, Legal services, Public Benefits (working with Department of Transitional Assistance), Housing applications, Education, Social Services (working with Department of Children and Families), and Milieu Therapy. Co-facilitate an Expressive Therapy Group.

Volunteer Experience

YWCA Boston

Fundraising for the YWCA Boston's Academy of Women Achievers Celebration Luncheon 2012

Colorado Anti-Violence Program (CAVP)

Collaborate with CAVP to train staff on GLBTQ inclusive services and language.

DART (Domestic Abuse Response Team) Advocate, Crossroads Safehouse

Provide advocacy for victims immediately following crisis situation, working side by side with police on the scene.

Presentations

Presenter at 2007 NASW Colorado Chapter Pre-Conference Workshop for the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) Colorado Chapter 2007 Conference: Creating Safer Communities through Empowerment and Prevention. Workshop Titled: Challenges for Domestic Violence Victim's Presenter at 2009 AASWG (Association for the Advancement of Social Work Groups) International Symposium in Chicago presented on a Cognitive Behavioral Therapy group for people who Compulsively Hoard.