Interterm Travel Course Questions

Answer the following questions on a separate sheet. Each answer should be about 2 paragraphs typed. Make sure to include:

- Your name (first, last)
- ID number
- Interterm Course (title, course number)

1. How does this course fit into your academic and personal goals?
2. Please describe your reasons for selecting this particular travel course and location over other travel courses.
3. What have you done to prepare for your travel course experience?
4. Please describe three challenges you expect to face during your travel course experience and how you might deal with them.

Please refer to our Interterm Course flyer or our website (<http://www.du.edu/specpro>) if you have any further questions.

Student Conduct Policy

The University Of Denver Student Code Of Conduct is in force during a student's time studying, researching, involved in service learning, or otherwise taking part in DU-sanctioned programming.

The Interterm Office at the University of Denver has developed a number of relationships with partner institutions and program providers. We value these relationships and have informed our partners the DU Student Code of Conduct, along with our concern to maintain that Code. As a representative of the University of Denver, it is up to you to perform well in the classroom and be respectful citizens in the community at large, even while traveling. We expect you to serve as ambassadors of the University of Denver. The reputation you leave will affect the students who follow you, so please take this responsibility very seriously.

Every participant is registered through the University of Denver and continues to be subject to DU policies. These include the University Standards of Conduct, the Honor Code, and other related policies. For complete information on these codes, please refer to DU's website at <http://www.du.edu/ccs/code.html>.

The following areas of concern are described in the Code of Conduct:

Civility

1. Disorderly Conduct
2. Harassment
3. Provocation

Integrity

1. Academic Misconduct
2. Dishonesty
3. Theft

Community

1. Endangerment
2. Hazing
3. Interference
4. Non-Compliance
5. Violation of University Policies

Responsibility

1. Alcohol Misuse
2. Drug Misuse
3. Physical Misconduct *
4. Property Damage *
5. Sexual Misconduct

* Please note this includes any housing damages.

If you are involved in an incident that incurs expenses for DU, the cost will be added to your DU account. If you are found to have violated any of these areas of concern, this information will be shared with the University of Denver's Interterm Office and then passed on to the Office of Citizenship & Community Standards.
