THURSDAY, SEPT 5

9:00am-5:00pm
FSEM Destination Trips
Location: Various
Destinations is the experiential element to the academic instruction and advising students have received up to this point. The centerpiece of Destinations is an outing, led by the FSEM Faculty and Orientation Leader that allows faculty mentors and their mentees to connect in informal off campus settings. This trip may be closely tied to fall quarter’s First Year Seminar subject. A class investigating anthropological issues, for example, might travel to an archaeological site; a course devoted to the performing arts might attend a play at one of Denver's many theaters. Ask your professor or your OL about your groups’ trip!

9:00am-5:00pm
Department Open Houses
Location: Various
Visit some of the departments on campus and ask them questions about their services and the resources they provide. Detailed descriptions of each open house and location are on the last page.

8:30pm-11:30pm
#FOMO
Location: Newman Center
Do you ever worry that something more exciting or interesting is currently happening somewhere else? Well it is. At the Newman Center. SO. MANY. THINGS. Don’t let the #FOMO get you down. Come join us for a night of surprises, fun, and Instagram worthy moments that will make everyone else wish they hadn’t missed out!

FRIDAY, SEPT 6

9:00am-12:00pm
Student Success Sessions
Location: Destinations Rooms
During today’s sessions, you will rotate through a series of 3 educational sessions. One of these educational sessions will be provided by Theater Delta, an interactive theater company who will provide an engaging performance and conversation related to bystander intervention and a community of care as it relates to sexual assault and alcohol use (this session will have counselors on call in case students need support or are activated by material). The second and third sessions will normalize transition, failure, and the capacity for each of us to bounce back. Discoveries Leaders will facilitate discussions synthesizing the week and action plans to support a successful transition to DU.

12:00pm-2:00pm
Lunch Wrap up with your FSEM Professor
Location: Assigned Dining Halls

2:00pm-3:15pm

Center for Sustainability
Location: Thrift Store (Outside of Hilltop Apartments)
Students will be able to learn about our various programs, pick up a sticker, and get some cool stuff for their residence halls. The Center for Sustainability offers periodic volunteer opportunities in the campus gardens, at sporting events, and out in the wider Denver community.

Center for Sustainability
Location: Bridge Community Garden (Corner of Race St and Illif Ave)
Students will be able to learn about volunteer opportunities at the garden, the several student groups who use the garden for their activities, and info about upcoming events. There may even be fruit in season on some of our trees!

The Hub
Location: The Hub
The Hub is the new home for Campus Life departments once housed in the old Driscoll Student Center. During construction of the new Community Commons, the Hub’s mission is to be a space for resources, connection, and a place where members of the DU community can simply hang out. We offer free coffee & Netflix in the lounge, the Career Closet where students can get free professional clothing, we have space for Student Organizations to store materials, meet, and working collaboratively, and we host special events throughout the year. If a student is unsure of how to get engaged on campus, the Hub is a great place to start!

Student Outreach & Support (SOS)
Location: Driscoll South Suite 30
Student Outreach & Support (SOS) helps students succeed, utilizing a case management framework, by connecting them to resources, developing a plan of action to meet their goals, and navigating challenging situations. The SOS staff creates an inclusive and welcoming environment for students to develop skills in self-awareness, self-advocacy, resilience, and navigation to maximize their educational experience.
International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS)
Location: ISSS not only provides support services such as immigration and cultural adjustment counseling for international students, but also has a mix of educational and cultural programming throughout the year. This programming is for all DU students, no matter their affinity, and is designed to increase cross-cultural understanding. We'd love to share our programming with more students and learn more from students about what they'd like to see us do!

Anderson Academic Commons
Location: Anderson Academic Commons
Join us at the Anderson Academic Commons for our Board Game Open House! Play games and learn about the library and all of our partners. AAC is a focus in the heart of campus, home of University Libraries, the Writing Center, the Research Center, the IT Help Center, and more services that are available to help you be a successful student.

Pride Lounge
Location: Centennial Halls
DU's new Assistant of Director of Gender & Sexuality Cody Ortiz-Oldham, along with the Queer Student Alliance and other LGBTQ+ campus groups, will be hosting a fun-filled open house at the DU Pride Lounge located in Centennial Halls from 11:00am-5:00pm. Activities include a Live DJ, coloring and art supplies, board games, videos games and an opportunity to meet new folks. ALL university of Denver community members (students, staff, faculty--ALL genders and identities!) are invited to join us for all events!!! If you have any questions, please contact Cody at cody.ortiz-oldham@du.edu

11:00am - 12:00pm: COMMUNITY LUNCH - Use a meal swipe to get lunch at Centennial Halls and bring it in the Pride Lounge!

5:00pm - 6:30pm: FAMILY DINNER PICNIC - Use a meal swipe to grab food at Nagel Hall Market grab & go and meet us outside on the lawn. Look for the giant Pride Flag!

8:30pm - 11:00pm: DRAG BINGO & LGBTQ+ WELCOME BACK PARTY - Join us for #FOMO in the Newman Center for the LGBTQ+ Welcome Back Bash!!
Career and Professional Development

Location: Tent on Driscoll South Lawn

Swing by any time between 1-3pm to cool down with a popsicle, get some groovy free items, and meet our career coaching team. We’ll be on site and eager to meet you and share a bit about our services. Our mission is to support students in all phases of their academic and career planning, which includes exploring possible majors, learning what pathways you can pursue with your degree, and coaching on the internship search, writing resumes, and how to tell your story in such moments as interviewing.
