WINTER QUARTER 2019
IDENTITIES IN DIALOGUE

MW 10am-12 pm
COMN 2000.1 (CRN 5336)
Taisha McMickens & Carina Weadock

TR 12-2pm
COMN 2000.2 (CRN 5337)
Cassidy Ellis & Neda Kikhia

Join these special sections to:
- Enhance marketable communication skills across difference
- Deepen awareness of your and others’ identities, privileges, and change potential
- Build alliances toward more inclusive and just communities
- Engage real-life issues as an expert in your own experience

CREDITS FULFILLED:
- Performative Req for Communication Studies Majors!
- Identity & Rhetoric Req for GWST
- Elective for other programs!

Small class size, integrating readings, engaging activities, reflective writing, with facilitated dialogue -- connecting theory and lived experience across our intersectional identities, and culminating in a collaborative project.

Questions?
Contact Chair of COMN Studies,
Christina.Foust@du.edu

Offered in collaboration with Campus Life & Inclusive Excellence's Inclusion & Equity Education