

WINTER QUARTER 2020

IDENTITIES IN DIALOGUE

Mon-Wed 12-2pm

COMN 2000.2 (CRN 3975)
Anne Walker & Neda Kikhia

Tues-Thur 10am-12pm

COMN 2000.1 (CRN 3974)
Cody Walizer & Carina Weadock

Join these special sections to:

- Enhance marketable communication skills across difference
- Deepen awareness of your and others' identities, privileges, and change potential
- Build alliances toward more inclusive and just communities
- Engage real-life issues as an expert in your own experience

Questions?

Contact Dr. Christina Foust
COMN Studies,
Christina.Foust@du.edu

CREDITS FULFILLED:

- Performative Requirement for Communication Studies Majors!
- Identity & Rhetoric Req for GWST
- NEW Critical Race & Ethnic Studies Minor
- Elective for other programs!

Small class size, integrating readings, engaging activities, reflective writing, with facilitated dialogue -- connecting theory and lived experience across our intersectional identities, and culminating in a collaborative project.

Offered in collaboration with
Campus Life & Inclusive Excellence's
Inclusion & Equity Education

