Why say “Happy Holidays”?

Because between November 2019 and January 2020, common calendar, the world’s major religions observe at least 29 different holidays, among other cultural festivals and events. Christmas (12/25) is a big one, among many.

- Birth of Baha'u'llah (Baha'i) 10/29-30
- Mawlid al-Nabi (Islam) 11/9-10
- Hannukkah (Judaism) 12/22-30
- Las Posadas (Latinos & Latin America) 12/16-24
- Common New Year 1/1
- Epiphany (Christian) 1/6
- Bodhi Day (Buddhism) 1/13
- Pancha Ganapati (Hinduism) 12/21-12/25
- Kwanzaa (US & West African Diaspora) 12/26-1/1
- Zartosht No-Diso (Zoroastrianism) 12/26
- Solstice/ Yule (Wiccan, Pagan, northern hemisphere) 12/21-1/1

Especially if you don't know whether/ what someone celebrates, "Happy Holidays" is more accurate, inclusive, and simple.
