Welcome to the University of Denver!

The offices listed in this section can partner with students in understanding academic expectations, how they learn, developing new skills to meet their academic goals, career planning, and understanding their rights and responsibilities as a citizen of the University.

This map identifies numerous offices on campus that serve as resources for you to take ownership of, and responsibility for, your college experience. Many offices provide resources in more than one category and will have multiple icons next to their office name. If you are unclear about who to contact, call 303-871-2453.

Note: This is not an exhaustive list; simply examples of resources available.
