Study Abroad deadline in January

Help your student get a head start on study abroad! Students interested in studying abroad sometime in 2018-2019 need to submit their DU Study Abroad Nomination Application no later than January 18, 2018. Students’ first step is to come for a First Step Session (FSS). We strongly recommend they complete this step before winter break to allow themselves time to research programs. FSS schedules, our Study Abroad Handbook, application information, and more on study abroad at DU can be found on our website: www.du.edu/abroad
Does your student need help landing a full-time job or internship for summer?

Encourage them to register for Careers & Leadership I: Job and Internship Search Preparation (LDRS 2911), 2 credits for winter quarter where students will learn the skills necessary to secure jobs and internships. Class content will help your student articulate your unique skills and experiences via resumes, cover letters and interviews while also teaching them the wide array of tools and strategies that can be utilized for securing job and internships.
