Pioneers Care Activation Process

The illustration below demonstrates how the Pioneers Care referral system activates both the Behavioral Intervention policies and procedures and the Student Support Pathway.

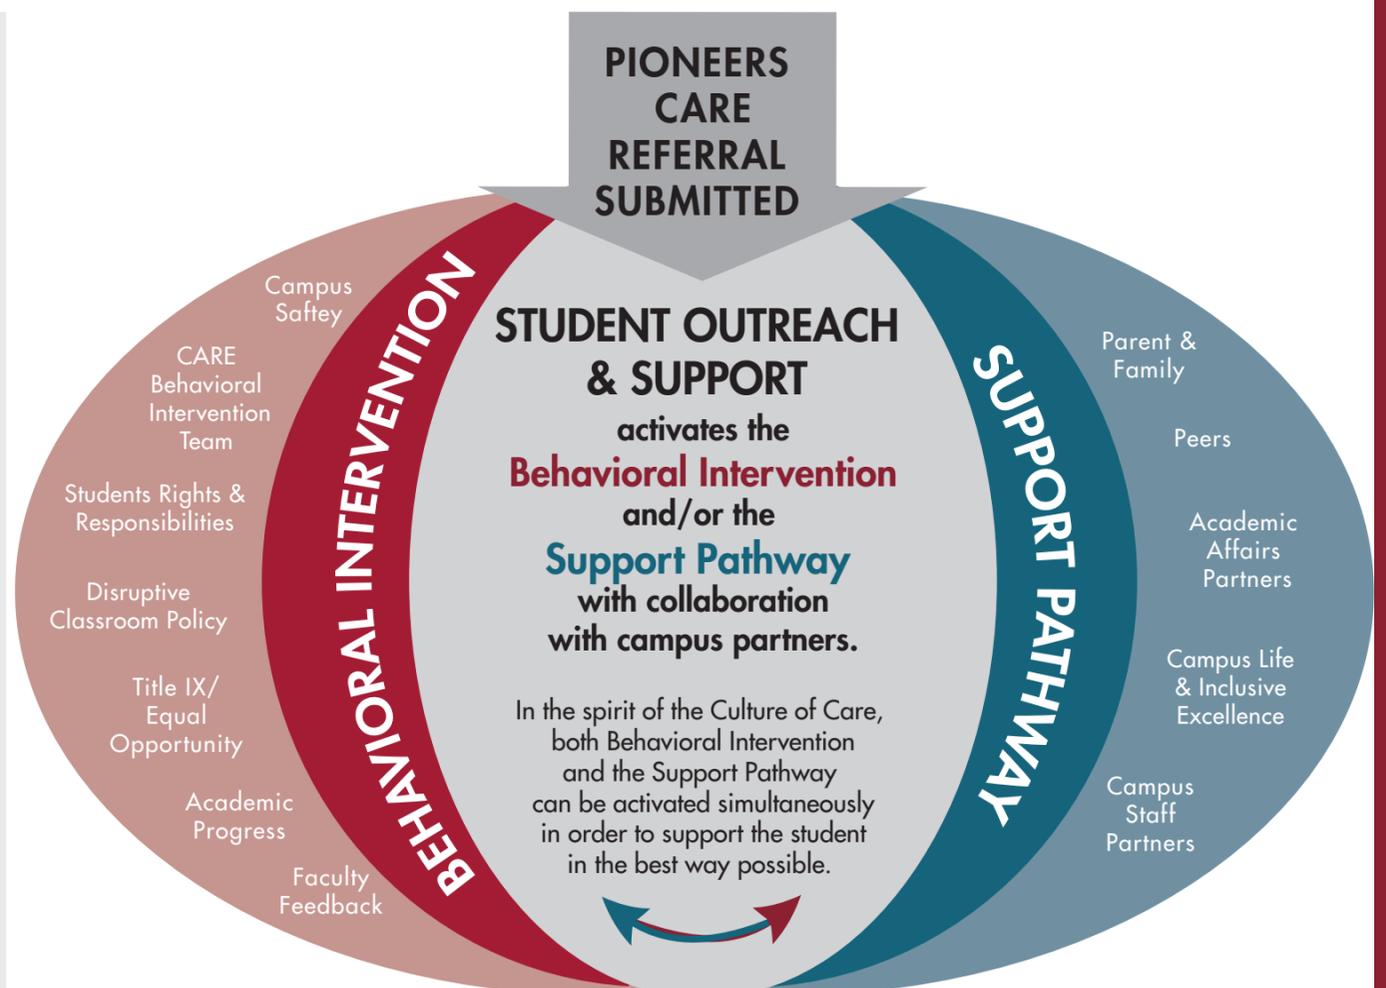

Culture of Care & Support

At the University of Denver, we engage in a Culture of Care & Support for individuals and the campus community to maintain their safety, health, and well-being.

Through our holistic collaboration we can work together to ensure that our students are connected to the appropriate resources to meet their goals and develop new skills in navigating challenging experiences.

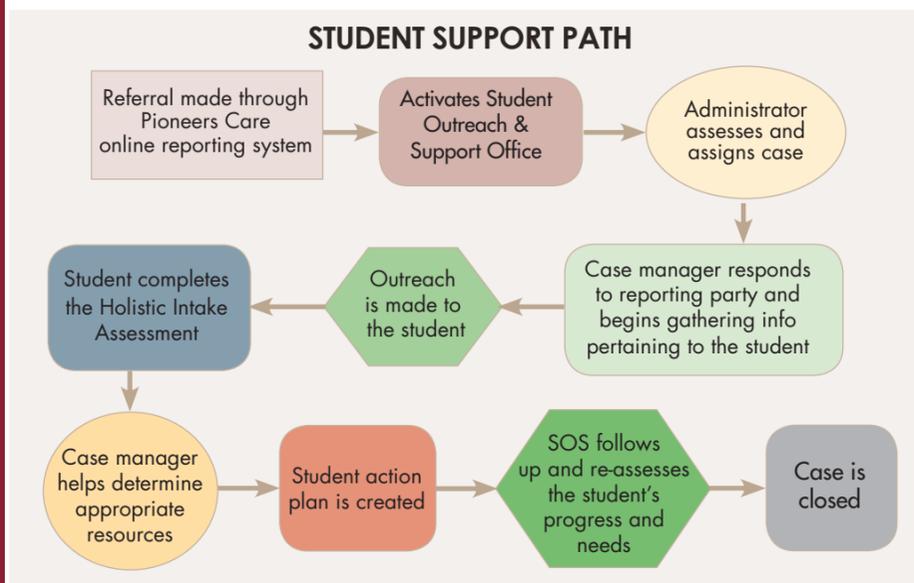

We continue to evolve this culture by:

- Educating the students on the services available to support them
- Collaborating across departments
- Developing an environment where everyone understands their responsibility in noticing the well-being of those around them
- Helping the campus community learn the skills to know when and how to intervene
- Creating access and referrals to the appropriate university office or resource

Please understand that reporting not only helps support students, it also serves as documentation that the University activated appropriate protocols to address concerning behavior that may have safety implications for individuals and the campus community. This type of documentation is very important given liability issues.

Pioneers Care Referral and Case Management Process

Crisis Assessment & Risk Evaluation (CARE) Team

The University of Denver's Crisis Assessment Risk Evaluation (CARE) Behavioral Intervention Team is committed to providing care and access to resources to create a safe and secure environment for our campus community to maintain their safety, health, and well-being. The CARE team takes a proactive, objective, supportive, and collaborative approach.

The CARE team is dedicated to the prevention, identification, assessment, intervention, management of, and coordinated response to student situations and behaviors that may be disruptive or pose a risk of harm to the safety, health, and well-being of individuals and the campus community. The primary modes of intervention to address disruptive or concerning behavior include, but are not limited to, the following:

FERPA Related Info: Reporting Concerns for the Student as it Relates to Privacy Laws

(To see the University's FERPA policy visit www.du.edu/registrar/privacy)

The University protocol directs faculty and staff to report to Pioneers Care online reporting system for any concern for a student. FERPA does not prohibit the disclosure of academic, social, and emotional concerns to Pioneers Care.

If the student has apprised a staff or faculty member in writing, it should be shared with someone with "an educational need to know", which includes Pioneers Care and does constitute an "educational record." Anything expressed verbally by a student is not part of the "educational record," but still should be reported to Pioneers Care to comply with DU's culture of care mission.

What about Confidentiality?

Information reported to faculty and staff is not confidential; please refrain from guaranteeing it. The following resources offer strictly confidential services. Except in rare, extreme circumstances, nothing will be shared without the student's explicit permission. For students requiring confidentiality please direct them to one of the following:

- DU Center for Advocacy, Prevention, and Empowerment (CAPE)
- DU Health and Counseling Center
- University Chaplain Services

Sharing information regarding a Health or Safety Emergency

Call 911 or Campus Safety in the event of an emergency.

FERPA allows the disclosure of information from the educational record, without the written consent of the student, under the following: "Persons in an emergency, if the knowledge of information, in fact, is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons. This exception is limited to the period of the emergency and does not allow for a blanket release of student records."

For additional information on FERPA, contact the Office of the Registrar at 303-871-3897 or see the FERPA guide for DU employees: www.du.edu/registrar/media/documents/ferpa_employee.pdf.

International Student Support Program

The University of Denver will be partnering with Morneau Shepell, leaders in international counseling support, to introduce an exciting new program to our campus – the International Student Support Program (ISSP). Morneau Shepell's International Student Support Program provides 24/7 remote counseling and acculturation support to international students via the use of technology. Students are able to access self-directed digital content in addition to connecting with clinical advisors who speak their language and understand their culture.

This program is offered at no cost to the student and aims to support the wellbeing and retention of international students studying here at DU, by complementing already existing campus resources. More information can be found online by visiting <https://us.myissp.com> or calling 1-866-743-7732.
