Organization Commitment of Support

This Organization Support Agreement form should be completed by the individual in the sponsoring organization authorized to provide financial support to the applicant.

The organization understands that the support of its employee during the DTI Executive Masters Program is a critical factor in the successful completion of the program. If the employee is accepted into the DTI Executive Masters Program, the organization agrees to do the following during the program duration:

- Release the employee from work on all class days, which include five, 6-day, onsite residency periods on the University of Denver campus, one residency at a domestic port, and one, 1-week, travel study seminar at an international location.
- Ensure that the employee’s business commitments will not conflict with the required onsite residency periods and the required travel study seminar.
- The organization understands and supports the time commitment its employee is making in the DTI Executive Masters Program; however, the employee and the organization will be responsible for the costs associated with completing the requirements of the program.

Please check the statement of support that applies. Note: The program cost of the DTI Executive Masters Program includes tuition, room, meals, and associated academic fees at the Denver residencies but does not include the costs of the international travel study seminar.

1. The organization will fund or reimburse the full amount of the 2017-2018 program cost of $64,800 for its employee.
